Why Liberal Democrats?

As a BAME citizen of the UK, with Hispanic family and European family links, I joined the party in 2016 to fight Brexit, to fight racism and to be a part of making a liberal, tolerant and better place for us all to live, whilst also maintaining a strong economy.

Why choose me for the International Committee?

I am bi-lingual; I taught myself Spanish from the age of 10, alongside learning French to a conversational level. Since then I have also learnt basic Portuguese and Ukrainian. I was a relatively 'nerdy' child also, having learnt every flag in the world by age 5! International studies has definitely been something I have grown a passion for.

In April 2018 I was elected as the South East Regional Chair of the English Young Liberals. Since then I have been speaking with many young liberals and organising events with senior members of the party such as Baroness Garden of Frognal for my event in Canterbury (September 2018).

I would make sure as an international committee representative that the views of Young Liberals internationally are presented to the views of English Young Liberals and establishing a stronger link between international liberal groups and our own.

Policy 1

Work with the International Committee to make sure all international policy reflects the belief of young people by more regular polling and greater ability to raise concerns.

Policy 2

Create a dedicated area/website where international liberals from other organisations can communicate with English Young Liberals about what is needed to be done internationally and help facilitate that.

Policy 3

Make sure LGBTQ+ campaigns internationally are supported and advertised by the Young Liberals and work tirelessly to help attendance of rallies, campaigns and movements for a liberal future.
