2. A woman's unrestricted right to reproductive services, including abortion. Potential restrictions might include public funding (Medicaid, military/veterans benefits, etc.) for birth control and/or abortions, criminalizing late-term abortions, preventing the inclusion of reproductive/abortion services in state health insurance marketplaces or as part of the required essential health benefits under the Affordable Care Act, or parental consent for an unemancipated minor to obtain birth control or abortion services. SUPPORT
3. The Black Lives Matter movement and goals (<https://blacklivesmatter.com/about/>). SUPPORT
4. The MeToo movement to end sexual violence (<https://metoomvmt.org/>). SUPPORT
5. Sensible gun control, including universal criminal background checks for gun and ammunition purchases, limits on ammunition cartridge capacity, universal gun licensing and a national gun registry/database, prohibit the sale of high-capacity magazines, and an assault weapons ban, among other measures (<http://www.gaysagainstguns.net/about>). SUPPORT
6. Federal and state efforts to enact criminal justice reform and end mass incarceration, including sentencing and prison reforms (for example, HR 3356 Prison Reform and Redemption Act), bail reform (<https://www.governor.ny.gov/news/governor-cuomo-unveils-22nd-proposal-2018-state-state-restoring-fairness-new-yorks-criminal>), and the closure of Rikers Island. SUPPORT
7. The elimination of the death penalty nationwide (NY's Court of Appeals effectively ended the death penalty in NYS in 2004). N/A
8. Specific laws and resources to effectively address violence and hate crimes targeting the transgender community, particularly transgender and gender-nonconforming women of color (<https://transequality.org/issues/anti-violence>). SUPPORT
9. The expansion of age-appropriate sex education in public schools, including non-judgmental discussion of sexual orientation/gender identity and the distribution of condoms to students, within the context of educating them about the transmission of HIV and other sexually transmitted infections with the goal of preventing transmission among school-aged children/adolescents. SUPPORT

10. An initiative requiring New York City's public schools to develop and implement a curriculum on LGBT history. SUPPORT

11. The use of school vouchers to permit students to attend private schools paid with public school dollars. OPPOSED, as an advocate for public education, I feel it is far more effective to adequately fund public schools and address the issues preventing public schools from offering top quality education.

12. Organized prayer in public schools. OPPOSED, I firmly believe in the separation of church and state.
