

Honey Sale

Have you heard about the Linden rooftop hive? Are you looking for a holiday gift for friends and family? Do you love honey?

This year at Linden, there are two different jars of honey for sale.

$10 5 oz. jars of honey extracted from the Linden rooftop hive

$8 3oz. jars of honey from an Alvéole production yard in the Junction, extracted by Linden elementary students

Funds raised from the honey sale will allow us to continue the much-loved rooftop hive program next year. The cost of the program, run through Alvéole, is close to $2,000, and includes three educational workshops, bi-weekly maintenance of the hive by trained beekeepers, and all of the hive equipment. All jars have a personalized Linden label and make the perfect holiday gift.

Due to popular demand, we will limit the first round of sales to one jar per student. If you are interested in more than one jar, please note your interest on the order form below, and these families will be selected by lottery based on availability.

Thank you,
Savannah Barker

Honey orders are first come, first served, and due back by Friday, November 30th to Savannah Barker, with payment (cash or cheque made out to The Linden School).
