U.S. SENATE

AP RESULTS OF THE 33 U.S. SENATE ELECTIONS

Idaho

Precincts reporting: 100%

Peter M. Busch (D) 105,487
 ✓ James A. McClure* (R) 293,416
 Donald B. Billings (L) 7,366

Campaign: The victory — which makes him a contender for Senate majority leader — supports his opposition to massive new wilderness areas in the state, McClure said.

Illinois

Precincts reporting: 99%

✓ Paul Simon (D) 2,364,682
 Charles H. Percy* (R) 2,290,029
 Steven I. Givot (L) 58,745

Campaign: With heavy support from Chicago, Simon ended Percy's 18-year Senate career in a cliff-hanger victory that bucked Reagan's sweep of the state. He joked his first order of business was to "take a nap."

Michigan

Precincts reporting: 100%

✓ Carl M. Levin* (D) . . . 1,926,426
 Jack Lousma (R) 1,733,648
 Lynn Johnston (L) 7,951

Campaign: Levin said "hundreds of thousands of voters split their ticket" for him proving the state "doesn't want a senator that's in the president's pocket. They don't want all the power in any one person's hand."

Minnesota

Precincts reporting: 100%

Joan A. Growe (D) 845,720
 ✓ Rudy Boschwitz* (R) . . . 1,192,056
 Richard Putnam (L) 4,522

Campaign: Boschwitz, celebrating his 54th birthday Wednesday, called re-election a "vote of confidence" for his campaign themes of economic optimism and support of Reagan.

GOVERNORS

Montana

Precincts reporting: 97%

✓ Ted Schwinden* (D) . . . 246,200
 Pat M. Goodover (R) 92,905
 Larry Dodge (L) 11,353

Campaign: Schwinden, who ran 10 percent ahead of Reagan, says "good old days" are over; state faces tight budgets.

North Carolina

Precincts reporting: 100%

Rufus Edmisten (D) 1,007,478
 ✓ James G. Martin (R) . . . 1,204,597
 H. Fritz Prochnow (L) 4,514

Campaign: Martin, second GOP governor this century, extended olive branch to Democrat-controlled legislature, saying he'll cooperate to pass vital programs.
