Fundraising Director Report March 2017

March 8th, 2017

Per Article 2, Section 10: The Fundraising Director shall be responsible for establishing and operating fundraising activities including, but not limited to, a monthly pledge program, and for reporting all income and expenses related to fundraising at the regular Board meeting.

In the month of February, the Fundraising Director took possession of the outgoing Outreach Director's materials. Previous planned "models" for the shirts fell through, but hopefully I will find someone soon (Fundraising Director would model shirts himself, but the goal is to drive traffic to the site, not deter it).

Phone banking effort had limited success. Fundraising Director and JeffCo volunteers have found phone numbers associated with the Secretary of State's list are oftentimes inaccurate.

Current convention sales to date are (will update Monday for current) and we have had a great response.

Matthew DiGiallonardo

Membership Report March 2017

Liberty Coffee Chat continues to be a great hub of bringing in a small group Liberty informational discussion but I will need to cancel if nobody attends in my absence the next couple of months while I have a contract opportunity that has me downtown on weekday mornings. I will address this at convention. With the help of David Aitken's database work, he identified various members who were not registered and so with his zip code lists, I sent emails out to many, nearly 150 with little response but a good idea and I will encourage the continuation of this effort.

COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR REPORT March 2017

As per our Bylaws Article II, Section 6, the duties of the Communications Director are as follows:

Section 6: The Communications Director shall be responsible for all communications, such as a regular newsletter, web sites, multimedia, social media, press releases, media appearances, and media inquiries.

Social Media:

I am continuing to be in recruiting mode for additional social media volunteers. Amelia continues to excel. Instagram is an area we may wish to explore, but time and volunteers are scarce. Generally, someone will turn up that is interested in those areas. We remain number 4 in the national statistics behind Indiana, Georgia, and Florida.

Twitter leader Robert Bentley submitted the following: The Libertarian Party of Colorado Twitter account is now up to 1,351 followers and growing everyday. As a way to increase our outreach the graphics on the account have been updated to match the ones currently used by the Facebook page. As we get closer to the convention at the end of the month there will be more posts concerning information and events. We are still sticking to the daily schedule of 5 posts a day, one being the 7 pm slot for events around the state. Posts will be added throughout each day about convention information.

Our Social Media statistics are as follows:

We budgeted $100 last month to boost our Convention event. We have spent just over half and have had 131 click-thrus at an average of .42 a click. The click-thru statistics were interesting, we had a higher conversion rate with women (reach of 21% women, but a 28% click-thru rate). Here are the statistics:

Website:

Continues to be updated and a professional face for the Party. David Aitken has been meticulous with requested updates. I continue to find items for our archive section. David has also been doing some extensive database analysis. I have started to exploring whether or not a platform switch to WordPress/CiviCRM might be beneficial or doable in the future.

Media/Events:

By the time of this report I will have been back from my speaking engagement and visit as Regional Representative at the Montana Libertarian Party Convention. I was featured on Libertopia in a piece called "Find What You Love, and Let it Kill You" and had a few moments on Free Talk Live to promote the LPCO Convention.

Newsletter and Press Releases:

As has been the practice for the past year, we are sending out email blasts in lieu of a Newsletter. Several press releases were sent and regular convention mailings are going out via Mailchimp. We also sent and test out a text blast to promote the Convention. The second text blast went out on Friday. Here are the stats for the first one:

Author	Slug	Sent	Delivered	Responses	Unsubs	Failed	Status
 Caryn Ann Harlos	convention	395	385	6 (1.52%)	20	10	Sent	11 days ago
Hello Liberty lover! Have you got your tickets yet to the Libertarian Party of Colorado convention? http://www.lpcolorado.org/2017convention txt STOP to leave

FURTHER INVOLVEMENT:

My involvement with the Party goes beyond my prescribed Board duties.

Convention Committee:

I have spent a great deal of time on Convention and assumed many duties beyond my initial scope of ensuring the smooth running of Party business and credentials. This past month I have made sure that we would have merchandise, signage, and swag bags. I have helped to oversee the general oversight and organization and maintained a list of attendees for preparation of identifications and pre-credentialing.

National Membership Updates:

We are back to the number 11 position (and Georgia has the same number of BSM members though assigned space 12). I volunteered with the National Party to followup on lapsed members/donors for Region 1.

Caucus:

I am on the Board of Directors of the Libertarian Party Radical Caucus as the Colorado State Coordinator and am serving on their Platform Committee, Branding Committee, and Convention Committee.

Volunteer Recruitment:

I have been actively soliciting and developing LPCO volunteers, particularly now for Convention.

Committees:

I serve on the LPCO Constitution and Bylaws Committee and the Platform Committee (for which I was appointed to Chair). Those meetings have been concluded and reports submitted. I am now also serving on the Convention Committee as the Party Business Sub-Committee Leader - and have formed the Credentialing Committee and the Convention Standing Rules Committee which have had their final meetings. The Convention business has taken a great deal of my time as I developed proposed Credentials protocols and proposed Convention Standing Rules.

I have been appointed Chair of the Libertarian Party Historical Preservation Committee which has begun meeting. LPedia is about to re-open for general use.

LNC/National:

Please see my LNC Regional report submitted separately.

Independent Political Report:

I am editor and report on Party news and issues.

“Ballot Selfie” Lawsuit:

I am pleased to report that the Colorado legislature has now revised that law and ballot selfies are fully legal in Colorado. This is a real result in a winnable issue that brought great exposure to the LPCO.

Respectfully Submitted,
Caryn Ann Harlos

Dear Region 1 Members:

This is my periodic status update in order to keep you up to date on matters concerning the Libertarian National Committee and my involvement as your elected Regional representative. Remember, you can also find copies of referenced reports as well as a lot of other helpful information at the Region 1 website.

Following are some of the major issues discussed on the LNC Business List since my last newsletter to you. I highly encourage you to follow this list LNC Archives of Email Discussions and Votes \(can be viewed by author, date, subject and thread\) and keep track of what your National Party representatives are doing as I can only cover the major items here.

Please note that the next in-person LNC meeting will be in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on April 15-16, 2017. Details will be published on the LP.org website. The minutes for the December 10-11, 2016 meeting can be found here. We are still awaiting revised Convention minutes.

January 2017 End-of-Month Financial Report: This has been delayed and is expected any day now.

Platform and Bylaws Committee Appointments: At the last LNC meeting, it was decided that the LNC appointments for these Committee would be made at the April meeting with appropriate time given for member applications. There was discussion about the content of the application with several LNC members (including myself) requesting that the applicants be invited to give a short summary of their understanding of Libertarian principles. Chair Sarwark directed the LNC members to work it out amongst themselves outside the meeting, and I volunteered to work with Secretary Mattson on this project.

When a proposed application was sent to me, it did not contain any such invitation but rather was pretty much identical to the one sent out last year.

When I requested this to be included, I was flatly refused without explanation (or at least I felt so) and thus I took the question to the LNC list which discussion can be read here. I find the refusal baffling. Information on the candidate's basic understanding of what is the purpose and mission of our Party seems eminently relevant and reasonable for Committee members that are tasked with recommending edits to our governing documents - particularly since our Convention process is designed to thwart member Motions from the flood making Committee recommendations extraordinarily influential. I also objected on the ground that one LNC member should not have such control and authority over the application process that they can summarily dismiss requests of other members - this is not "working it out amongst ourselves" and this is a decision that rests with the LNC. As of this time, no agreement has been reached (and I would hope that motions are not necessary, we must model the cooperative societies we wish to see), and if one does not go soon, it will be an inappropriately short period of time for member applications. I will keep you posted.

Resolution on Cuban libertarian prisoners: The Libertarian Party of Nevada and multiple other affiliates passed a resolution on this matter and asked the LNC to adopt. The resolution failed but there is another one currently pending (you can read more at the links).

Also, as you know, I was appointed Chair of the Libertarian Party Historical Committee. The Committee members have been appointed (read more here at IPR), and we have begun meeting. I will model in this Committee the level of transparency I advocate on the LNC. You may follow (read-only) the Committee discussions as follows:

Lastly, not directly related to my Region 1 work but of general interest, I was interviewed by Libertopia, and you can read the article here: Find What You Love, and Let it Kill You: An Exclusive Interview with Caryn Ann Harlos

And I was interviewed on the state of the Libertarian Party and Libertarian Party
