ARTICLE V – Organization

I. Officers

- a. The officers of the Party shall be Chair, Vice-Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer, and Assistant Treasurer. Term of office shall be two years. These officers shall be elected at the Biennial Convention by the attending full members and shall take office immediately upon the close of such Meeting or Convention and serve until the final adjournment of the next Meeting or Convention. All officers will be elected by a simple majority.
- b. No offices shall be combined.
- c. The officers shall have such powers and perform such duties as are delegated by the Executive State Committee and are not inconsistent with the provisions of these Bylaws, and the laws of the State of Maine.
- d. Any officer of the Party may be temporarily suspended by a vote of three (3) Executive State Committee members, subject to ratification by a 2/3 vote of the full members attending a special convention called for such purpose. The members will then elect a replacement officer, except in the case of the Chair being suspended, in which case the Vice-Chair shall become Chair, and the members shall elect a new Vice-Chair. Such officer will complete the term of office vacated.
- e. ~~The Executive Committee shall appoint new officers and Executive Committee members if vacancies, not due to suspensions, occur, with the exception of the vacancy of the Chair, in which case the Vice-Chair shall become chair and the office of Vice-Chair will be appointed by the Executive Committee. Such officers and Executive Committee members will complete the term of office vacated.~~
The State Committee shall appoint new officers if any of the positions of Vice-Chair,

Secretary, Assistant Treasurer, District Members or At-Large Members of the State Committee, if vacancies, not due to suspensions, occur.

- f. If the position of Chair is vacated, the Vice-Chair becomes chair, and the position of Vice-Chair is appointed by the State Committee
- g. If the position of Treasurer is vacated, the Assistant Treasurer becomes Treasurer, and the position of Assistant Treasurer is appointed by the State Committee
- h. Officers and members of the Executive State Committee may not serve as an officer of, or committee member of another state or national political party. This applies to all organizations that consider themselves political parties, whether or not the state of Maine has given any official status to them
- i. If an individual is elected or appointed as an Officer or Executive State Committee member to the Party while holding a conflicting role in another party, as defined above, that individual has 90 days to resign from one position or the other. If such individual fails to do so, the position is considered vacant, and may be filled according to the rules for doing so described in Article V, Part I e
- j. All Officers and Executive State Committee members must be sustaining members.
- k. Unless the State Committee appoints a Finance Chair, the Treasurer shall serve as the Finance Chair of the party.

- c. The Chair of a recognized County Committee serves as a member of the State Committee, with the Vice-Chair of that County Committee serving as an alternate.
- d. Members of a County Committee must be Full Members of the party, and reside in that county.
5. Judicial Committee.

A Judicial Committee may be formed. The Judicial Committee shall be composed of five (5) full members appointed by the ~~Executive~~ State Committee. The term of a member of the Judicial Committee shall run through the period of the next Party convention and until a successor is appointed. No officer of the Party may serve on the Judicial Committee. The Judicial Committee shall be the final body of appeal in all matters regarding interpretation of the Bylaws, Rules, or Resolutions of the Party subject to the provision that a decision of the Committee may be overturned by a 2/3 vote of a convention.

6. Exhaustion. In the event that all Executive State Committee positions become vacant, former Executive State Committee members who are willing and qualified to be members of the Executive State Committee shall constitute themselves as the Interim Executive State Committee. They shall promptly act as described in this Article to fill positions on the Executive State Committee. Until it is replaced via Elections at a Convention or Special Meeting under Article VI of these Bylaws, the Interim Executive State Committee shall have all powers and bear all responsibilities of the regular Executive State Committee.

ARTICLE VI – Special Meeting and Conventions

I. Conventions

- a. The Party shall hold a Biennial Convention every general election year at the time and place selected by the Executive State Committee. The Party may have such additional conventions as may be deemed desirable by the Executive State Committee. A special Convention may be called by presenting a petition signed by 10% of the sustaining members of the Party, such Convention to be held within 30 days of the presentation to the Executive State Committee. The Executive State Committee shall appoint a convention committee to arrange the Convention. Notice of the Convention shall be given not less than fourteen (14) days prior to said Convention. Posting of notice on the Party website, and via direct mail to all members shall be considered notice of the Convention.
- b. Any sustaining member attending any Convention of the Party may cast a vote as a delegate.
- c. A Convention called for the purpose of nominating delegates and alternates to the national Convention shall be held within a year of the national Convention after the number of delegates is announced. Any full member in attendance may cast a vote, if they register for the convention at least 6 days prior to the convention

2. Special Meeting

If a Biennial Convention is not called as provided under this Article by June 1 of any even numbered year, any five (5) members of the Party may call a Special Meeting. Notice of the Special Meeting shall be given not less than fourteen (14) days prior to said meeting. Posting of meeting notice on the national Libertarian Party website (www.lp.org) shall be considered notice of the meeting. New Officers will be elected at the Special Meeting, and other business will be conducted as required.

ARTICLE VII – Platform

1. The Party may adopt a platform. The platform shall include, but need not be limited to, the Libertarian Party's National Committee's "Statement of Principles" and the implementation of the principles contained in the "Statement" in the form of planks.
2. The Executive State Committee shall appoint a Platform Committee whose responsibility it is to write and submit said platform to the Convention for approval on a plank by plank basis by a 2/3 majority of the delegates present and voting at the Convention.

ARTICLE VIII – None of the Above

1. Votes cast for "None of the Above" in voting on the Party's candidates for delegates to national Libertarian Party conventions, representatives to the national Libertarian Party platform committee, and for the four Party officers shall be considered valid and properly recorded.
2. Should "None of the Above" receive a majority for an officer, another election for that office shall be called.

ARTICLE IX – Election of delegates to Libertarian Party National Conventions

1. All delegates and alternates shall be full members.
2. Delegates and alternates shall be elected by full members in attendance at the Party's convention in the year of the Libertarian Party National Convention.
 - a. The first step in electing delegates shall be to receive any number of seconded nominations.
 - b. The Party Convention attendants shall then vote by secret ballot for "acceptable" nominees of their choice. Delegates may also indicate "unacceptable" nominees.
 - c. Only those nominees receiving more "acceptable" votes than "unacceptable" votes shall be delegates or alternates. They shall be ranked in order of number of "acceptable" votes received.
 - d. Should there be more winners than slots allocated by the National Libertarian Party those with the most "acceptable" votes shall be delegates and those remaining shall be alternates.
 - e. In case of ties for the last regular delegate slots, all those tied shall be ranked by voting Party Convention attendees. Those with the highest rank sum are regular delegates. Further ties shall be resolved by the Chair.

- f. The next ranking alternate, as determined by the Chair, shall become a regular delegate in case a regular cannot attend the Libertarian Party National Convention. Other alternates shall substitute for regular delegates on the National Convention floor.
3. If the Party is eligible to elect a national Libertarian Party Platform Committee, or Libertarian Party Credentials Committee member, member under the Rules, Constitution, or Bylaws of the national Libertarian Party, the election of such member will be by majority vote of the full members present and voting at the Convention. Voting shall be done by secret ballot. An alternate shall also be elected for this position. If the deadline for such a choice occurs before a convention can be held, the choice is to be made by a majority vote of the Executive State Committee.
4. The head of the delegation shall be nominated and elected by the convention from among the persons who have been elected as delegates. An alternate head shall also be elected.
5. Prior to and at the National Convention, the elected delegation head may select additional people to be alternate delegates.
6. Alternate delegates added by the delegation head, may be residents of locales other than Maine, so long as they are Sustaining Members of the national Libertarian Party.

ARTICLE X – Parliamentary Authority

Roberts Rules of Order-Newly Revised shall be the parliamentary authority for all matters or procedure not specifically covered by the Bylaws of the Party.

ARTICLE XI – Amendments

1. These Bylaws may be amended by a 2/3 vote of the members voting on that particular issue at any Biennial Convention or Special Meeting.
2. Article IV, 2, Article V, I.d., and this Article shall not be amended or suspended without a 7/8 vote.

ARTICLE XII: Nomination of Candidates

Candidates for statewide races, state legislative races, and U.S. Congressional district races, may be nominated at the biennial convention, or any special convention called by the State Committee for such a purpose. Any candidate so nominated must be a Full Member.
