

Bylaws Proposal 5 - Submitted by Alexander DiBenedetto on 12/29/2016

IV. Convention

Section 9. National Convention Delegates. The LPN may nominate delegates to the Libertarian Party National Convention by majority vote of the Convention during an even-numbered year.

- A. Should any vacancy arise prior to the start of the National Convention, the Executive Committee is empowered to select a replacement by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.
 - B. Should a vacancy arise after the start of the National Convention, the credentialed delegates to the National Convention are empowered to select replacements by a majority vote. This vote shall be conducted by the delegate Chair, who is selected by the majority of Nevada, National Convention, credentialed delegates.
-

Author's Note in Favor:

This information was hiding around in other sections. It's important enough to receive its own section.

Bylaws Committee Recommendation:

