Las Vegas, NV - The Libertarian Party of Nevada announces its State Convention will be held on January 21st, 2017 at the Opportunity Village: Oakey Campus in beautiful Las Vegas, NV. All those who voted for Libertarians, such as David Colborne, Steve Brown, Kim Schjang, or Gary Johnson, are welcome to attend and learn more about the party. Registered members of the Libertarian Party of Nevada are invited to attend as delegates by registering at www.LPNevada.org/2017\_state\_convention. There is no fee to attend the convention, but a donation of $17.76 can be made at www.LPNevada.org/donate to help cover the costs of the 2017 State Convention.

"I am excited for the Libertarian Party of Nevada Convention this year. We have seen that the LP can make some noise in elections, it is time to make a difference in our communities and take the next step as a political party." - Libertarian Party of Nevada Vice-Chair Jason Smith.

"This will be my first state convention as a Libertarian, a party that actually aligns with the values I've always held!" - Liz, a 23 yo Las Vegas native and college student attending UNLV. Liz is also a member of the NYL - Nevada Young Libertarians caucus.
