1. Jeff Scott reported on the happenings surrounding the CD 9 race:
Election has not been certified. There is a possibility that there will be a special election. Per federal directive, if there is a new election, there must be a new primary.
David Perry is offering to try to develop media opportunities for the LPNC to get their position out. David Perry will head up the PR effort for this issue.
Sarah Brady Wagner will work with Jim Doughty and Brian Irving to develop a position.
2. Matt Clements gave an update from the 2019 LPNC Convention Committee:
If we can commit to UNC-W, we can start fleshing out the details. Particularly, we need to develop the program. Possible dates: May 24-26 (Memorial Day weekend: least popular), June 7-9 (conflict for Matt), May 31-June 2 (seems like a good date before school is out and vacations begin)
Brent DeRidder moves, Sarah Brady Wagner seconds, to set the date for the 2019 LPNC Convention to May 31-June 2. Motion passes without objection.

The committee will work on several packages for tiered pricing. Pricing is a priority so we can start to advertise.

- 3. Brent moves to dissolve the contract with our fundraiser. Sarah seconds. Passes without objection (Brent, Adam, Amy, Andy, Jeremy, Matt, Sarah, with Susan abstaining)
