

Lynn Valley Services Society

Community Newsletter October 2020

Bringing people together

What's new:

We are starting this newsletter to get information to you quicker, as we add to our programs and activities. Please consider subscribing!

Activities coming back:

Happy to announce LVSS (at Mollie Nye House) has opened for limited activities! Arts and Crafts, Sewing Group, Darts and Tai Chi.

Participation will be reduced for cleaning, physical distancing and other Covid protocols. Mollie Nye House will NOT be open the public so feel free to call us, or ring the doorbell. Due to Covid you must register for all activities, no drop-ins. Please register by calling Sophia at 604 987 5820 ext 115.

We are adding Zoom activities and programs. If you are interested in participating from the comfort of your home, we need your email address. Please subscribe to this newsletter.

We want to know:

Tell us what activities you want to come back to in January? But no guarantees 😊

To keep up to date with LVSS programs and activities:

Check out our website www.lvss.ca

Follow us on Facebook <https://www.facebook.com/lynnvalleyservicesociety/>

Subscribe to this LVSS Community Newsletter and tell your friends!

To subscribe email us at; newsletter.lvss@gmail.com

Tell us your name and we will add you to our newsletter email list.

*“Be kind, be calm, be safe. This isn't forever, it is just for now”
Dr. Bonnie Henry*

Thank you!

Thank you to our amazing gardening volunteers who have kept the heritage garden a bright and peaceful place to sit.

Our values

community diversity family partnership respect

Bringing people together