LWVMD Board Gets Bigger and Better!

LWVMD has been joined by three new board members: Theresa Freligh of Harford County, who will assume the role of recording secretary; Lois Hybl of Baltimore City, who heads up the state League's Police and Community Relations study and is a part of our action team; and Linda Rittelmann, also of Baltimore City, who is our Social Media Manager.

PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Where did the summer go? Although things slowed down a bit in League land, we have still been busy. Working with our coalition partners we are already planning for the upcoming legislative session. One of the things we will be working on is overriding vetoes on two bills we supported. One bill would have increased the amount of renewable energy that utilities would be required to purchase, and the other would have created more accountability and transparency in the Maryland Transit Administration. We are continuing to strategize ways to highlight the need for redistricting reform and will keep up the pressure on the Governor and the Legislature to enact legislation. Along with our coalition partners we are planning another big push on earned sick leave next session.

In addition to advocacy, our work around the upcoming General Election continues as well. Ralph Watkins has been coordinating a huge initiative to register voters at naturalization ceremonies. Thanks to all of you who have volunteered to help with this effort. Many of you are planning candidate forums for the fall and LWVMD stands ready to assist in any way we can. Ralph will continue to provide guidance to local Leagues as they use the Vote411 system to develop their General Election Voters' Guides.

Elaine Apter has been working with local Leagues to make sure that member information on the LWVUS database is up to date. This is really important because LWVMD uses that database to learn who are members of LWVMD so that we can communicate with every one of you. Also, each League's per member payment is based on the number of its active members, so accuracy is crucial.

It's nearly time for our annual Constitution Day celebration at the co-sponsoring Carey School of Law in Baltimore, this year on September 15. Our topic is Implications of the Present Election for Various Aspects of our Constitutional Structures. A flyer on page 10 below has lots more information.

And soon it will be Fall Workshop time. Please mark your calendars for Saturday, September 24th. We will have briefings on statewide Ballot Questions and Part I of the LWVMD Primary Election Study. There will be a workshop for local League treasurers and, as always, lunch and a thought-provoking speaker. See our flyer on page 11 for more details.

However, the League isn't all work and no play; we have a fun afternoon planned for Sunday, October 23rd. We will be touring both the Prince George's African American Museum and Cultural Center, <http://www.pgaamcc.org/> and the Riversdale House Museum, http://history.pg parks.com/sites_and_museums/Riversdale_House_Museum.htm? Along the way we will enjoy some yummy snacks and have a chance to visit with our League friends from around the state. See the flyer in this SBL to find out how to sign up.

We hope you are enjoying your summer and look forward to seeing many of you this fall.

Barbara Schnackenberg and Nancy Soreng, LWVMD Co-Presidents

In Memoriam

In Remembrance of Annette Funn, 1942 - 2016

Annette Funn, shown directly in front of the Maryland sign at the 1980 LWVUS Convention, was a dedicated League member and community activist. She served on the LWVMD Board from 2009 until 2011 and was co-president of the Calvert County League at the time of her passing. Annette co-chaired many studies and moderated various candidate forums. She worked for 35 years as a microbiologist, holding numerous positions and titles such as Senior Science Public Health Policy Advisor and Consumer Safety Officer & Supervisor at the U.S. Food and Drug Administration. She will be missed.

Nancy Soreng

LWVMD Board Meeting Highlights, August 1, 2016

LWVMD

- The sales of wares at the National Convention was so great that we need to re-order several items. The board approved purchasing more VOTE T-shirts and color "Don't Let Granny Down" note cards.
- Our Fall Fundraiser is in the works. We will be visiting two museums in Prince George's County, with light refreshments offered between visits. The African American Museum and the Riversdale House are our two scheduled stops.
- In order to make financial reports more transparent, the board is looking into converting all our funds into a 501-C3 fund. Also, the board is publishing the end of year budget report in this State Board Letter, to inform all members of our financial updates.

LWVMD-Education Fund

We are working on potential forums for candidates for U.S. Senate, slated to take place in two locations, Baltimore City and the Eastern Shore.

Theresa Freligh, Recording Secretary, LWVMD

Talking about this Election!

Does the League of Women Voters have any comment about Secretary Hillary Clinton winning the Democratic nomination for U.S. President? Since its beginnings in 1920, the League's goal has been to promote the involvement of all citizens in the political process, particularly women, who had just earned the right to vote, with the hope of making our democracy "work" even more robustly. So, it's natural for us to salute the first-time nomination by a major political party of a female to the office of the presidency.

But, does this mean we endorse Hillary Rodham Clinton for president? No, not as an organization. As always, we neither support nor oppose political candidates or parties. As League leaders, however, we may be asked to respond to questions on this topic. Here are some election talking points, prepared by LWVUS, to help Leaguers handle these queries in the months ahead.

LWVUS Convention Highlights

Bylaws changes were approved by attendees: League members may now be as young as sixteen years of age, and do not have to be U.S. citizens in order to be voting members.

New positions were adopted on the constitutional amendment process; redistricting; and behavioral health. And, an existing position on money in politics was updated.

LWVUS did not raise the PMP for local Leagues, and no new national studies were approved at the convention.

Legislative Priorities Season Is Here Again

The General Assembly convenes again on January 11, 2017. This year some committees have already been meeting and others will begin again in September. You can find these meetings on the Assembly website, mgaleg.maryland.gov, under the "Committees" tab on the home page and specific dates under the "Schedules" tab. For example the House Environment and Transportation Committee is meeting and having a public hearing on fracking at Garrett College on August 30.

Whatever comes out of these intersession committee meetings, we need to be ready with our own legislative ideas and establish our priorities. In order to be sure that all local Leagues participate in the process of setting our priorities, we ask that the first round of suggestions be submitted to me by Monday, September 26, 2016. Once we have this first round of suggestions, we will compile them and send them back to the local Leagues by October 1, so that they may have the opportunity to see what everyone has suggested and, if they choose, revise their final list of suggested legislative priorities. Any changes to your priorities should be submitted to me by October 31. When the second round of suggestions is compiled, the state board will adopt our statewide priorities at our November board meeting and publish a leaflet of our priorities for us to use with our legislators in their home districts or in Annapolis.

What Topics Should Local Leagues Consider?

Your suggestions may be on any topic on which we have a national or state consensus. Our national consensus positions are provided on the LWVUS website LWV.org, and state consensus positions may be found in a document titled "Study and Action," which may be found on the LWVMD website, LWVMD.org. If we do not have a national or state consensus on a topic of great interest to League members, they may suggest that the topic be studied when we consider state level program planning as we do every other January. League members who have questions about our consensus positions may contact us.

For specific suggestions, please review our legislative priorities for 2016. You can access the 2016 Legislative Priorities brochure by clicking on "Advocacy," "Legislative Priorities" and "2016." For example, we have continued to push for redistricting legislation and to publicize our "gerrymandered" state. Again, consult the Maryland General Assembly website at www.mgaleg.maryland.gov. At the bottom of the home page, you will find a box titled "Highlighted," i.e., "The 90 Day Report," which provides a summary of legislation that passed and failed in the 2016 session. These may provide some suggestions for your consideration, especially among ideas that failed but which we may want to raise again. If you have questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at lhybl@verizon.net or Ruth Crystal at mailto:ruth@cramercrystal.com.

Save the Date! September 16, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Forum on Judicial Elections – location TBA. LWVMD is slated to participate in this educational event. The program will focus on the pros and cons of judicial elections in our state. We will post more information about the forum on our website as it is known.

Around the State!

Sharing Ideas from Local Leagues

Common threads among Leagues include: marching in parades, hosting debates on local issues and "Hot Topics" gatherings, for fun, learning, and fellowship, and making plans for events on National Voter Registration Day, September 27, 2016.

Several Leagues in the Baltimore Washington area are helping to register new voters at naturalization ceremonies. These new citizens are excited to be able to participate in the coming election.

Prince George's League participated in a county council public hearing on proposed charter amendments that would increase the number of council members and increase term limits from two to three. If the council recommends the issues as a ballot question, PG's LWV will hold a forum.

Howard County is having a fund raiser with "Hexagon," a political satire troupe, Saturday, September 17, 2016 at 5:00 pm at Slayton House in the Wilde Lake Village Center. Tickets are $30.00. Contact LWVHC.org for tickets.

Queen Anne's LWV has completed the filming of "League Infomercials" to be shown on the local cable channel broadcasts. Stay tuned for more information.

The film "Iron Jawed Angels" will be screened in Kent County for National Voter Registration Day, to spur interest in voting. "Getting Out the Vote" will be a priority, with posters, displays, and voter registration at various sites in the works.

Chesapeake College has volunteered to provide the setting for a forum for candidates for the U.S. Senate. The Mid-Shore LWV is working with Kent and Queen Anne's to make it happen.

Mid-Shore also has set October 1 for a follow-up Water Quality program, as the previous event was well attended and informative.

Community participation was strong in Frederick this summer, with a debate for the Brunswick City elections for mayor and city council candidates. It was well attended.

The Frederick County Executive approved the League managing a nonpartisan nominating committee for the County Ethics Commission. The process was approved by the council and the nominees selected by the League's process were approved.

A joint luncheon between the Baltimore County and City Leagues will be held October 1, 2016.

Baltimore County will host a table at Boscov's, at White Marsh Charity Day in October.

"Voices on Government," a committee that hosts a series of panels on League and community topics, held their first of six planned for 2016-17. The first topic was Party Conventions. A little known fact: Baltimore held the first Democratic Convention, May 21, 1832!

LWV Baltimore County has also been very involved in a Home Rule Act, with testimony, small group meetings with council members, letters to the editor, and participation in numerous community meetings.

Betsy Grater, LWVMD Membership Chair

Is your League planning a candidates' forum this election season? If so, please send all pertinent information about your event to Ralph Watkins, LWVMD's Voter Service Chair, Ralph.watkins1@verizon.net, so that he can post this data on VOTE 411 and the LWVMD website.

CELEBRATING ELBRIDGE GERRY

For another year, the League of Women Voters of Maryland and Common Cause celebrated the birthday of the father of gerrymandering, Elbridge Gerry, to call attention to the fight for redistricting reform. This year the celebration took place on July 14th at Lawyer's Mall in Annapolis in 94° heat, rapidly melting the ice cream which, along with cake, was available for all participants.

Ashley Oleson, a member of the Anne Arundel League, was on hand to talk specifically about the Governor's Commission to Study Redistricting Reform. The Commission's recommendations made it into legislation proposed during the 2016 General Assembly session but did not pass. Matthew Palmer, Deputy Legislative Officer for Governor Hogan, was present for the party and reinforced the administration's dedication to this issue. He emphasized in his remarks that the administration would again propose redistricting in the 2017 General Assembly.
