

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS® OF ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY, MARYLAND

welcomes your participation in

A Conversation with District Public Defender
William Davis

Saturday, February 25, 2017

10:00 a.m.

Odenton Library, 1325 Annapolis Road, Odenton

Please join the League as we learn about the 2016 Justice Reinvestment Act from the perspective of the Public Defender's Office. Mr. Davis will also address current initiatives on bail reform, and other issues confronting the criminal justice system in our county.

Attendance is free and open to the public. Email lwvaacmd@gmail.com or visit lwvaacmd.org for more information.

William Davis grew up in Bowie and received his law degree from University of Maryland in 1990. During his career as a public defender, he has represented indigent clients for charges ranging from misdemeanor theft to capital murder. He has served in his current position as District Public Defender for Anne Arundel County since October 2007.
