The League of Women Voters of Anne Arundel County invites you to participate in an action-oriented discussion of redistricting reform efforts in Maryland, led by Carol Ann Hecht, President of the National Council of Jewish Women Annapolis Section and a co-founder of the Tame the Gerrymander Coalition, and Ashley Oleson, a member of Governor Hogan's Redistricting Reform Commission. Our speakers will review the current situation, explain the Commission's findings, comment on pending legislation in the 2016 General Assembly, and instruct participants in voicing their support for change. Free and open to the public.
