Wine and Pizza Conservation Letter Writing Party!

Join us for free pizza and wine at a DRECP letter writing party!

Satisfy your hunger for pizza, wine and sound renewable energy policy that will protect the desert's special places and our communities! Join Defenders of Wildlife, The Wildlands Conservancy, Mojave Desert Land Trust and the National Parks Conservation Association for a free wine tasting, pizza eating and Desert Renewable Energy Conservation Plan (DRECP) letter writing party!

The event will be held from 5:30-8:30 pm at Rose and Buster's Wine Bar in Yucca Valley (<https://www.facebook.com/roseandbusters>) on Tuesday, February 17, 2015. Attendees will be treated to a sampling of free pizza and two glasses of wine. The focus of the evening is to have fun, get to know one another and generate letters for the Desert Renewable Energy Conservation Plan from community members who care about our desert ecosystems, the rural character of our communities and our regional tourism economy. The DRECP is a big picture renewable energy plan that will shape the future of renewable energy development in the California desert.

Don't miss out! Bring a pen and bring a friend! Reserve your space now!

RSVP is Required! Please send confirmation of attendance to Seth Shteir at sshteir@npca.org by Sunday, February 15, 2015.
