

Second Friday

Old Schoolhouse Lecture Series

Fall 2021 and Spring 2022

- September 10 "Native Masterpiece Baskets | Weavers, Art, & Technology"
Alan Garfinkel, Author
- October 8 "African American Homesteaders of Lanfair Valley"
Barbara Gothard, Artist
- November 12 "Willie Boy & The Last Western Manhunt"
Clifford Trafzer, Author, Professor of History, UC Riverside
- December 10 "The History of Hi Jolly and the Great Camel Experiment in the Southwest"
Steve Brown, Writer, Executive Producer, and Co-Host: Southwest Stories
- January 14 "Cultural Resources of the Mojave National Preserve"
David Nichols, Archaeologist, Mojave National Preserve
- February 11 "A Natural History of Anza Borrego"
Mike Wells, Author
- March 11 "Can't Live Without You: Ocotillos and Hummingbirds"
Jim Cornett, Author, Biologist
- April 8 "A History of Condor Field in 29 Palms"
John Hale, Historian
- May 13 "Art and Light, from the turn-of-the-century landscape painters to the light and space artists of conceptualists, like Phillip K. Smith III."
Steven Biller, Editor In Chief, Palm Springs Life
- June 10 "Nevada Test Site"
Kim Stringfellow, Author, Professor, San Diego State University's School of Art + Design.

Lectures begin at 7 pm, $5 at the door

Old Schoolhouse Museum

6760 National Park Drive, Twentynine Palms

For more info 760-367-5539/desertinstitute@joshuatree.org

