

The Giant Kookaburra and The Giant Koala Trail

The Giant Kookaburra and the Giant Koala's mission is to help people to regain their natural joy and care free laughter. The Giant Kookaburra was built in a Brisbane backyard during the height of the COVID-19 lock down by Dr Farvardin Daliri, OAM, Executive Director of the Townsville Intercultural Centre.

It gained international media coverage including CNN, the New York Times, USA Today, BuzzFeed, as well as locally in Australia on ABC, The Guardian, Nine and many more.

Farvardin has been awarded the Order of Australia Medal for his lifetime of service to the community development sector and for initiating projects and programs for a more cohesive and harmonious society.
