

Muslim Democratic Club of New York

The Muslim Democratic Club of New York (MDCNY) is a New York City-based organization of American Muslims dedicated to helping elect responsible Democrats to office.

CLUB ENDORSEMENT PROCESS

1. Complete club questionnaire.
2. Attend screening with board members.
3. Address membership at endorsement meeting.

CLUB ENDORSEMENT POLICIES

- After the club questionnaire is sent to candidates or made public, all candidates will be given three weeks to submit the completed questionnaire via email in PDF format to muslimdemocratsny@gmail.com
- Candidates must submit the completed questionnaire in time to be eligible for a board screening.
- Candidates can submit a completed questionnaire after the submission deadline, but will no longer be eligible for a board screening.
- Board screening information including location, date, and time slot will be given after the questionnaire is submitted by the given deadline.
- All Democratic candidates are invited to the club endorsement meeting to address our general membership and answer questions.
- At our club meeting, after candidates speak, they will be asked to leave the room so the club can discuss our club's role in the race.
- Campaign representatives may be a part of the club discussion but if they participate in it, they must disclose to the rest of the attendees.
- Campaign representatives may not be a part of the club discussion if they speak in lieu of candidates during the candidate speaking time.
- The board will make a recommendation to membership on the club's role in the race.
- Campaign representatives may vote if they are dues-paying members.
- After the club vote, the board will announce the results publicly.
