

RALLY FOR THE LIVING WAGE

Wednesday July 8th, 9 – 10 AM

Vancouver City Hall, 12th at Cambie

Wheelchair Accessible – just south of Broadway-City Hall Skytrain.

Metro Vancouver Alliance and the Living Wage for Families Campaign are coordinating a rally to show support for Vancouver becoming a living wage city.

Vancouver has the second-highest child-poverty rate among Canada's 20 largest urban centres. This is despite the fact that a third of those poor children live in working families.

Every member of the community is affected by low-wage poverty.

At MVA's Municipal Election Accountability Assembly on October 9th, all municipal party leaders committed to developing a plan to make the City of Vancouver a Living Wage employer for all directly and indirectly employed staff.

On July 8th Mayor Robertson will honour his commitment by introducing a motion to begin the process of making Vancouver a living wage city. Bring your leaders, members, neighbors and friends to rally in support for this vital policy change.

Let's show the mayor and council that the whole community supports the living wage!

Be there to add your voice for a better city!
