FOR PARENTS OF MEMBERS IN LOCAL AREA TROOPS

In our effort to increase awareness and influence middle school girls to become globally compassionate teens, troop leaders and troop curriculum may include material of a sensitive nature. Issues girls face around the world are often brutal and sometimes graphic. While we write curriculum with the intent to educate in a compassionate and less graphic way, some of the subject matter may be new to your daughters. Topics we could cover include (but are not limited to): sex trafficking, AIDS/HIV, child marriage, rape, kidnapping, prostitution, starvation, enslavement, genocide, child soldiers, and more. By accepting the terms and conditions listed here, you agree to let your child's troop leader cover these issues and other similarly sensitive topics with your daughter. Troop leaders will do their best to communicate and share curriculum to keep you informed but the topics of the world are not easy ones and can be graphic in nature. If you do not want your daughter exposed to these types of issues, we would not recommend that she join a local troop.
