Greg George Joins Michigan Freedom Fund as Director of Communications and Research

LANSING, MI, July 22, 2015 –The Michigan Freedom Fund today announced the addition of Greg George as the organization’s new Director of Communications and Research. George joins the Freedom Fund after years spent advocating for Michigan public school children at the Michigan Association of Public School Academies, and defending taxpayers as an associate with Americans for Prosperity.

“The anti-worker agendas by some in Lansing have held back families and hamstrung Michigan’s economy for far too long,” said George. “I’m proud and excited to join an organization that’s fighting to put Michigan taxpayers first.”

A Lansing resident, George is a graduate of Hillsdale College and received a Masters Degree in Business Administration from Western Michigan University.

He is a veteran of numerous statewide efforts aimed at empowering Michigan taxpayers and families.

“Greg has spent his entire professional life fighting to protect Michigan taxpayers and families, and we’re thrilled he’s brought his talents to the Michigan Freedom Fund,” said Freedom Fund President Terri Reid.

Michigan Freedom Fund is a nonprofit organization run by Michiganders for Michiganders, working to advance, promote, and protect Michigan workers’ Constitutional rights. For more information, please visit www.MichiganFreedomFund.com.
