

CONTACT: Tony Daunt
PHONE: (517) 812-4134
E: Press@MichiganFreedomFund.com

Michigan Freedom Network Endorses 17 Candidates for State House

Top-Tier Candidates Win Major Endorsement for Commitment to Families' Constitutional Rights

LANSING, MI, May 14, 2020 –The Michigan Freedom Network today announced its endorsement of 17 candidates for the Michigan House of Representatives.

“The Michigan Freedom Network is proud to endorse and support candidates for the Michigan House of Representatives who are willing to stand up and fight to defend Michigan families’ constitutional rights,” said Freedom Network Spokesman Tony Daunt. “These candidates have won this important endorsement because they’re committed to limited government, government transparency, and the rights and opportunities of every citizen.”

House candidates receiving this major endorsement include:

District 19: Martha Ptashnik	District 79: Representative Pauline Wendzel
District 32: Representative Pam Hornberger	District 80: Representative Mary Whiteford
District 45: Mark Tisdell	District 81: Representative Gary Eisen
District 47: Meghan Reckling	District 83: Andrew Beeler
District 56: TC Clements	District 90: Representative Bradley Slagh
District 61: Bronwyn Haltom	District 101: Representative Jack O’Malley
District 70: Patrick Outman	District 103: Representative Daire Rendon
District 73: Bryan Posthumus	District 104: John Roth
District 74: Representative Mark Huizenga

Michigan Freedom Network is an independent political action committee. The Michigan Freedom Network supports candidates who advocate for fiscal responsibility, economic freedom and the elimination of coercive and compulsory policies.

###

Paid for by the Michigan Freedom Network with regulated funds.
Not authorized by any candidate committee.
PO Box 14162, Lansing, MI 48901