Michigan Freedom Network Endorses Evan Agnello, David Martin for State House of Representatives

Endorsements Awarded for Top-Tier Candidates Commitment to Families' Constitutional Rights

LANSING, MI, June 18, 2020 –The Michigan Freedom Network today endorsed Evan Agnello and David Martin in their bids for the Michigan House of Representatives. Agnello is running in Michigan's 41st House district, Martin in the 48th. They join 48 other candidates endorsed by MFN this cycle.

"The Michigan Freedom Network is proud to endorse and support candidates for the Michigan House of Representatives who are willing to stand up and fight to defend Michigan families' constitutional rights," said Freedom Network Spokesman Tony Daunt. "Evan Agnello and David Martin have won this important endorsement because they're committed to limited government, government transparency, and the rights and opportunities of every citizen."

Michigan Freedom Network is an independent political action committee. The Michigan Freedom Network supports candidates who advocate for fiscal responsibility, economic freedom and the elimination of coercive and compulsory policies.
