Connecting Faith and Sustainability

Dear Friends,

Michigan IPL is looking for a new Executive Director!

Do you want to be part of an organization that helps faith communities become better stewards of the Earth and advocates for protecting our air, land and water? CLICK HERE for a copy of the job description. Please share widely!

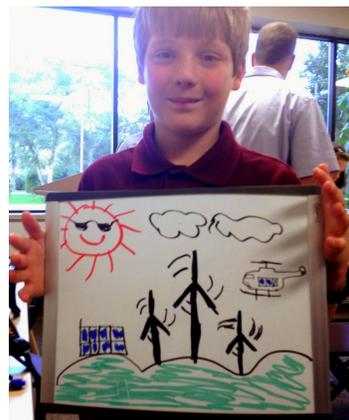

Tell Gov. Snyder and your MI Legislators You Support the Clean Power Plan

Last year, hundreds of Michigan IPL supporters submitted comments to the EPA to endorse common sense limits on carbon pollution. This week, the President released the Clean Power Plan-- our nation's biggest-ever coordinated effort to curb heat-trapping greenhouse gases and address climate change.

But the Plan is under attack.

Our friends at Creation Justice Ministries have created an easy way to show your support for the plan: Email Gov. Snyder and your legislators to urge them to keep our state on track toward a cleaner energy future.

Now is the time to #ActOnClimate!

Be a Better Steward of the Earth and of Your Congregation's Resources

Through a grant from Consumers Energy, we are offering free energy audits and efficiency upgrades to houses of worship who are Consumers customers-- a value of $2,000-3,000.

Participating congregations in greater Lansing, Grand Rapids, and Kalamazoo who are Consumers customers will receive:

1. Energy audit
2. Energy efficiency upgrades
3. Energy savings tracking
4. Energy efficiency report, with suggestions for further upgrades

To learn more, call Larry at 248-396-8231 or e-mail admin@mipl.org.

Want to Green and Grow Your Congregation?

On October 9, 2015, faith leaders from across the state will gather at The Peoples Church in East Lansing for our Green & Grow Your Congregation conference. Sign up now so that you can:

- Hear three highly acclaimed keynote speakers on faith and the environment
- Choose from 15 workshops
- Participate in a raffle with over $2,000 worth of energy efficient prizes
- Share fellowship with Michiganders from over 200 congregations

Spread the word about the conference-- see you in October!
