

Legislative Spotlight: Representative Annette Glenn (R-MI 98)

This is the latest in a monthly series of features on Michigan's legislative leaders, as we take a look at their district, their relationship with our industry and their thoughts on our homestate energy production. These legislative spotlights will be archived in the news section of the MOGA webpage and featured in MOGA's bi-weekly newsletter as well as in Michigan Oil & Gas News Monthly Report Editions.

We encourage you to reach out to the featured elected officials to thank them for supporting Michigan's oil and gas industry and to share the great work we do in their district.

MOGA has county-by-county fact sheets detailing the positive impact our industry has in every county of the state for your use. You can find these online at Michiganoilandgas.org or contact Michael at mcornelius@michiganoilandgas.org for more fact sheets.

Representative Annette Glenn was first elected to the State House in November 2018 to represent the residents of Michigan's 98th house district. The district includes portions of both Bay and Midland counties. Within Bay County, Glenn represents the cities of Auburn, Pinconning, and Linwood, and the townships of Beaver, Fraser, Garfield, Gibson, Mount Forest, Pinconning, and Williams. In Midland County, the district includes the city of Midland, the village of Sanford, and the townships of Homer, Jerome, Larkin, Lee, and Midland.

If the name sounds familiar, you may remember Representative Glenn's husband, Gary Glenn, who served in the State House from Jan. 1, 2015 through Jan. 1, 2019 and represented the 98th district as well. The two celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary in 2018 and have five children and seven grandchildren.

Representative Glenn has been a conservative Republican activist and leader for over 30 years. Annette graduated from Boise State University with a degree in Public Administration and served as state chair of College Republicans, going on to become vice chair of the College Republican National Committee. She was elected as a county Republican chair at age 23 and has served in multiple legislative offices at the state and federal level. She has owned and operated multiple businesses over the last three decades and has managed several political campaigns including those for Congress, Lt. Governor, state Supreme Court and multiple state House and Senate campaigns. She was a paid staff member of former U.S. Sen. Bob Dole's presidential campaign.

In 2016, Annette attended House committee meetings daily in Lansing and sat every day on the House floor with her husband during the five months he underwent chemotherapy for cancer, gaining in-depth knowledge on legislative issues facing Michigan and building relationships with lawmakers with whom she now serves with.

While Gary was recovering, she attended dozens of local township meetings and community events on her husband's behalf, again building relationships with the local leaders.

In her first term, Glenn serves on the House Appropriations Committee, which, along with its subcommittees, is responsible for helping determine the state budget. Rep. Glenn serves as vice chair for the Licensing and Regulatory Affairs Subcommittee as well as vice chair of the Department of Natural Resources and Department of Environmental Quality Subcommittee. In addition, she serves as a member of the Health and Human Services subcommittee and the School Aid & Department of Education Subcommittee.

Additionally, Rep. Glenn serves on the board of directors of a demographic analytics and marketing think tank, and she is also a long-time Scouting volunteer and the mother of four Eagle Scout sons; she's also served as volunteer treasurer for the Midland Flames boys' basketball team and the Fleet Feet youth track team.

If you didn't get a chance to meet the representative at the February MOGA membership meeting in Midland, we encourage you to reach out to Representative Glenn by email at AnnetteGlenn@house.mi.gov or by phone at 517-373-1791 to thank her for supporting Michigan's oil and gas industry and share the great work we do in her district.
