CHICAGO – Alderman Milly Santiago is proud to announce the second annual Colombian Festival. Last year, the Colombian Festival was a smash hit with residents all throughout the city and we are excited to have them back this year. Alderman Santiago and the 25th Police District have been hard at work to ensure the utmost level of security for the festival attendees. Alderman Santiago would like to encourage all 31st Ward residents to come out and enjoy a weekend full of food, dance, and music.

“We are excited to welcome back this year’s Colombian Festival at Kelvyn Park,” said Alderman Santiago. “Last year’s event was such a wonderfully organized event. It was a great time to spend with friends and family, I would encourage all of my ward residents to come out and have a great time. The 31st Ward is all about diversity and inclusion; this festival embodies the values of our community.”
