

Election Process for the National Coordinating Group (NCG)

The basis of how the first election of the NCG will be conducted is as follows:

Composition of the NCG:

- 1) Members - 12 places, plus up to 4 additional places
- 2) Trade Unions - 6 places
- 3) MPs and elected representatives - 4 places
- 4) Affiliates - 4 places plus 1 place for Welsh Labour Grassroots and 1 place for Campaign for Socialism (Scotland)

Momentum actively encourages applications from BAME, disabled, LGBT+, women and working class candidates.

The national office will provide any assistance with any accessibility requirements to enable you to participate fully in the election, including if you are unable to vote online. Further information about how to request assistance will be sent out shortly.

Nomination period 1:

To be received by HQ from Monday 16th January at midday - Monday 30th January at midday.

Voting period 1:

Wednesday 1st February at midday - Friday 17th February at midday.

Results announced on Friday 17th February.

Date by which members must have joined in order to vote: Monday 30th January at midday.

Voting period 2:

Monday 20th February at midday - Friday 10th March at midday.

Results announced on Friday 10th March.

* * * * *

Nomination and electorate details

Members - 12 initial places for three divisions comprising 4 places for the Midlands, Wales and the West (comprising the Labour Party East and West Midlands, South-West and Eastern regions and Wales), 4 places for the South-East (comprising the Labour Party London and South-East regions), 4 places for the North and Scotland (comprising the Labour Party Northern, North West and Yorkshire and Humberside regions, Scotland together with Labour Party members resident in Ireland and the rest of the World) (Nomination and Voting period 1)

To stand for election, you must be a member of Momentum, you must confirm that you agree to the rules of Momentum and you must provide evidence of your membership of the Labour Party at an address within the division in which you are standing, such as a photo of a current Labour Party membership card.

You must obtain the signatures of 20 other individual members of Momentum in your division.

You will be required to complete a nomination form, including a short written statement about yourself and why you wish to stand of no more than 100 words. You may also send in a photograph of yourself (optional).

Electorate: all eligible to stand in the same division in this section. Voting shall be by multiple non-transferable voting. Within each division, the two women and the BAME person with the highest votes shall be declared elected alongside the highest placed other candidate(s) until a total of 4 people are elected.

* * * * *

MPs and elected representatives - 4 places (Nomination and Voting period 1)

To stand for election, you must be a member of Momentum, you must confirm that you agree to the rules of Momentum and you must provide evidence of your membership of the Labour Party, such as a photo of a current Labour Party membership card. You must be an elected member of the UK, European or Scottish Parliaments, Welsh or London Assemblies, An Elected Mayor or Police Commissioner, or a member of an British local authority.

You may self-nominate and you will be required to complete a nomination form, including a short written statement about yourself and why you wish to stand of no more than 100 words. You may also send in a photograph of yourself (optional).

Electorate: all eligible to stand in this section. Voting shall be by Multiple non-transferable voting. The two women and the BAME person with the highest votes shall be declared elected alongside the highest placed other candidate(s) until a total of 4 people are elected.

* * * * *

Affiliated organisations other than trade unions - 4 places (Nomination and Voting period to be determined after consultation with the organisations)

Any of the following organisations (The World Transformed, Campaign for Labour Party Democracy, Labour Representation Committee, Compass, Labour Assembly Against Austerity, Labour CND, Labour Briefing Coop, Left Futures, Red Labour) which has confirmed that it accepts the rules of Momentum by a date to be determined may nominate one person. Each nominee must be a member of Momentum who joined prior to a date to be determined, must confirm that they agree to be bound by the rules of Momentum and must provide evidence of their membership of the Labour Party, such as a photo of a current Labour Party membership card.

Electorate: each of those organisations which is listed above which has confirmed that it accepts the rules of Momentum by a date to be determined may cast one vote. Voting shall be by Multiple non-transferable voting. If all eligible trade unions have voted, the voting period may be terminated early.

* * * * *

Trade Unions - 6 places (Nomination and Voting period to be determined after consultation with trade unions)

Any trade union which has confirmed that it accepts the rules of Momentum and has paid the relevant affiliation fee by a date to be agreed may nominate one person if they have up to 100,000 members and two people (at least one of whom Nominees must be a woman) if they have more than 100,000 members. Each nominee must be a member of Momentum at the time of nomination, must confirm that they agree the rules of Momentum and must provide evidence of their membership of the Labour Party, such as a photo of a current Labour Party membership card.

Electorate: any trade union which has confirmed that it accepts the rules of Momentum and has paid the relevant affiliation fee by the start of the voting period may cast one vote if they have up to 100,000 members and two votes if they have more than 100,000 members. Voting shall be by Multiple non-transferable voting. If all eligible trade unions have voted, the voting period may be terminated early.

* * * * *

Members - up to 4 additional places. (Nomination and Voting period 2)

If in the initial election, the 12 members elected do not include at least one self identifying as disabled, one self identifying as LGBT+ and two young persons under 30, then a further election in each un- or under-represented category between the leading candidate (if there is one) in that category in each division shall.

Electorate: for each category for which there is an election, those eligible to vote shall be all those eligible to stand for that category. Voting shall be by single or multiple non-transferable voting. In the event that there are two young persons under 30 to be elected, then the highest placed woman shall be declared elected, and the highest placed other candidate.