

If you think corporations have too much* power,

If you think corporations have too much* power,

If you think corporations have too much* power,

If you think corporations have too much* power,

Take action!
study the issue &
sign the petition at

MoveToAmend.org

Take action!
study the issue &
sign the petition at

MoveToAmend.org

Take action!
study the issue &
sign the petition at

MoveToAmend.org

Take action!
study the issue &
sign the petition at

MoveToAmend.org

Abolish Corporate Personhood!

Abolish Corporate
Personhood!

Abolish Corporate
Personhood!

Abolish Corporate Personhood!

* over lawmaking, governance and regulation; health care and energy policy; elections; the media; defense and foreign policy; fiscal policy and banking regulation; telecommunications, education, agriculture, entertainment, or the arts...

* over lawmaking, governance and regulation; health care and energy policy; elections; the media; defense and foreign policy; fiscal policy and banking regulation; telecommunications, education, agriculture, entertainment, or the arts...

* over lawmaking, governance and regulation; health care and energy policy; elections; the media; defense and foreign policy; fiscal policy and banking regulation; telecommunications, education, agriculture, entertainment, or the arts...

* over lawmaking, governance and regulation; health care and energy policy; elections; the media; defense and foreign policy; fiscal policy and banking regulation; telecommunications, education, agriculture, entertainment, or the arts...

"We the corporations" On January 21, 2010, with its ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, the Supreme Court ruled that corporations are persons, entitled by the U.S. Constitution to buy elections and run our government. Human beings are people; corporations are legal fictions. The Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law. In a democracy, the people rule.

We Move to Amend. We, the People of the United States of America, reject the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Citizens United, and move to amend our Constitution to:

- Firmly establish that money is not speech, and that human beings, not corporations, are persons entitled to constitutional rights.
- Guarantee the right to vote and to participate, and to have our votes and participation count.
- Protect local communities, their economies, and democracies against illegitimate "preemption" actions by global, national, and state governments.

Sign petition the at www.MoveToAmend.org

"We the corporations" On January 21, 2010, with its ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, the Supreme Court ruled that corporations are persons, entitled by the U.S. Constitution to buy elections and run our government. Human beings are people; corporations are legal fictions. The Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law. In a democracy, the people rule.

We Move to Amend. We, the People of the United States of America, reject the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Citizens United, and move to amend our Constitution to:

- Firmly establish that money is not speech, and that human beings, not corporations, are persons entitled to constitutional rights.
- Guarantee the right to vote and to participate, and to have our votes and participation count.
- Protect local communities, their economies, and democracies against illegitimate "preemption" actions by global, national, and state governments.

Sign the petition at www.MoveToAmend.org

"We the corporations" On January 21, 2010, with its ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, the Supreme Court ruled that corporations are persons, entitled by the U.S. Constitution to buy elections and run our government. Human beings are people; corporations are legal fictions. The Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law. In a democracy, the people rule.

We Move to Amend. We, the People of the United States of America, reject the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Citizens United, and move to amend our Constitution to:

- Firmly establish that money is not speech, and that human beings, not corporations, are persons entitled to constitutional rights.
- Guarantee the right to vote and to participate, and to have our votes and participation count.
- Protect local communities, their economies, and democracies against illegitimate "preemption" actions by global, national, and state governments.

Sign petition the at www.MoveToAmend.org

"We the corporations" On January 21, 2010, with its ruling in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, the Supreme Court ruled that corporations are persons, entitled by the U.S. Constitution to buy elections and run our government. Human beings are people; corporations are legal fictions. The Supreme Court is misguided in principle, and wrong on the law. In a democracy, the people rule.

We Move to Amend. We, the People of the United States of America, reject the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Citizens United, and move to amend our Constitution to:

- Firmly establish that money is not speech, and that human beings, not corporations, are persons entitled to constitutional rights.
- Guarantee the right to vote and to participate, and to have our votes and participation count.
- Protect local communities, their economies, and democracies against illegitimate "preemption" actions by global, national, and state governments.

Sign petition the at www.MoveToAmend.org