

Please note, following an inquiry the Divisional National Returning Officer has determined that there has been received only one valid nomination for the Office of Queensland Branch Deputy Secretary and therefore, no ballot shall be required.

The table below relating to officer nominations has been amended accordingly.