   seated in the order of election. Only one vote per person for those holding more than one position.

B. FUNCTIONS

1. The Executive Committee possesses and exercises all the powers and duties of the Central Committee except those powers and duties specifically reserved to the Central Committee by Oregon State Law, ORP bylaws or these bylaws during the intervals between meetings of the Central Committee, provided that the exercise of the Executive Committee’s power to adopt resolutions on behalf of the members of the Central Committee between Central Committee meetings shall require a two-thirds vote.

2. The Executive Committee may not enter into any lease, employment contract or other contractual obligation with could exceed their current term of office.

3. The Executive Committee shall meet at least once every two months on call of the Chairman.

4. A quorum at any meeting of the Executive Committee will consist of a majority of the voting members of the Executive Committee. Elected House District captains not in attendance at an Executive Committee Meeting are not counted in determining quorum.

5. All meetings of the Executive Committee shall be open to all Central Committee members except when discussing personnel or legal matters.

6. Notice of all Executive Committee Meetings must be sent to all members of the Executive Committee at least three (3) calendar days prior to the scheduled meeting. All notices shall specify the time, place and date of the meeting.

SECTION 3. Qualifications for appointment

Any registered Republican residing in Multnomah County is eligible to hold an appointed position.

SECTION 4. Standing Committees

Standing Committees shall be organized within the Central Committee for a specific purpose, composition, and function. These Standing Committees shall report on their activities as appropriate at Regular Meetings of the Central Committee and Executive Committee meetings.

None of the Standing Committees are empowered to expend funds on behalf of the Central Committee without prior consent of the Executive Committee. Unless otherwise stated herein, the Standing Committees will each consist of a Chairman to be appointed by the Central Committee Chairman and at least four (4) additional members to be appointed by the Standing Committee.
Chairman with the approval of the Central Committee Chairman. [Unless already a voting member, Chairpersons of the Standing Committees are non-voting members of the Executive Committee.]

A. THE FINANCE COMMITTEE will develop programs to raise funds for the operation of the Central Committee and for the benefit of Republican Candidates.

B. THE BUDGET COMMITTEE shall present an annual budget at the January regular meeting of the Central Committee. Copies of the proposed budget shall be mailed to members of the Central Committee at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the January meeting. The Central Committee may accept, amend, or reject the proposed budget. If rejected, the Budget Committee will prepare a new budget report for presentation at the next Regular meeting of the Central Committee. (Note: The Central Committee Treasurer shall be chairman and the Finance Chairman shall be a member of the Budget Committee.)

C. THE RESEARCH COMMITTEE will collect, assemble and disseminate information on current public issues and voting trends for the benefit of Elected Republicans, Republican Candidates and the general members of the Central Committee.

D. THE PRECINCT ORGANIZATION COMMITTEE shall locate and train persons willing to be appointed as Committeepersons in their own or adjacent precincts, develop programs to educate Committeepersons to participate in the political process at all levels, and organize and oversee registration activities.

E. THE CANDIDATE RECRUITMENT AND TRAINING COMMITTEE shall locate persons qualified and willing to run as Republican candidates for public office and shall formulate effective programs for preparing those persons to run for office.

F. THE AUDIT COMMITTEE shall direct that at least once a year, the Treasurer’s records are reviewed according to agreed upon procedures, by a person (other than the Treasurer) selected by the Audit Committee. They may also make recommendations in regards to financial policy or procedure. A copy of their report shall be made available to the Executive Committee and a written financial statement shall be made available to each member of the Central Committee at the next meeting. A complete copy of this report shall be kept at the party’s headquarters.

G. THE VOTER INTEGRITY COMMITTEE shall monitor elections in Multnomah County and keep the Central Committee informed of problems with the Multnomah County Elections office and in the Legislature.

H. THE PUBLICITY COMMITTEE shall publicize the activities of the Central Committee.

I. THE CANDIDATES ASSISTANCE COMMITTEE (CAC) will be composed of members appointed by the Chairman and an equal number of elected members. The elected members are to be selected by the Central Committee Chairman from those persons elected as Delegates to the ORP Central Committee, other than the Central Committee Chairman. The CAC will work under a rule whereby they will allocate at least 10% of the funds available for candidate assistance evenly between all the Multnomah County Republican Candidates running in partisan races who present CAC with campaign information with which to make allocation evaluations. The remaining funds will be allocated among specific candidates meeting the above criteria according to the need and viability of each candidate. Need and viability to be determined by CAC.

SECTION 5. Ad Hoc Committees

In addition to the Standing Committees, the Central Committee Chairman may from time to time appoint various Ad Hoc Committees which will report to the Executive Committee. (Unless already a voting member, members of Ad Hoc Committees are non voting members of the Executive Committee.)

SECTION 6. Nominating Committees

A. ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

1. COMPOSITION

2. FUNCTION

The Nominating Committee shall select nominees for the positions of Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary, treasurer, Delegates and Alternate Delegates to the ORP. The Nominating Committee will submit its report to the Secretary of the Central Committee at least twenty (20) calendar days prior to the date of the Organizational meeting. The report of the Nominating Committee will not be subject to any amendment.

B. REGULAR OR SPECIAL MEETING for the election of Delegates to the State Convention.

1. COMPOSITION

Within sixty (60) calendar days of the meeting to elect delegates to the State Convention, the chairman shall, with the advice and consent of the Executive Committee, appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of at least seven (7) members who will elect a committee chairman and secretary from amongst themselves.

2. FUNCTION

The Nominating Committee shall select nominees for the positions of Delegates and Alternate Delegates to the ORP State Convention. The Nominating Committee will submit its report to the Secretary of the Central Committee at least twenty (20) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting. The report of the Nominating Committee will not be subject to any amendment.

C. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE will act as nominating Committee to fill any other vacancies.
SECTION 7. The Credential Committee

The Credential Committee will consist of the House Captains. It will be their responsibility to keep an accurate count of the Committeepersons registered at each meeting of the Central Committee. The Chairman of the Central Committee shall appoint the Chairman of the Credential Committee.

ARTICLE VII. COUNTY ORGANIZATION

SECTION 1. House District Captains

The House District Captains, elected by the district precinct Committeepersons or appointed by the Chairman, will administer programs of material distribution and precinct organization. It is the duty of the House District Captain(s) to act as liaison between the Committeepersons and the Executive Committee. House District Captains must attend Central and Executive Committee Meetings. House District Captains may be elected at a district meeting in their House District [a district meeting may be held by notifying the Secretary and all of the precinct Committeepersons in the district 10 (ten) days in advance giving the time and a location within the district. District meetings may also occur at Central Committee meetings, if listed in the agenda]. Appointed House District Captains serve at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

SECTION 2. Area Leaders.

The House District Captain(s) shall appoint area leaders who will be assigned various responsibilities.

ARTICLE VIII. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

SECTION 1. Nominating Committees

The Nominating Committees shall select a slate of candidates for all Central Committee officers and delegates as defined in Article VI Section 6A and 6B.

SECTION 2. Other Nominations: Petitions

The Central Committee Chairman shall accept nominations for inclusion on the ballot which are submitted in person or by certified mail with a signed statement of “Willingness to Serve”, a petition of nomination bearing the signatures of ten (10) or more Committeepersons, and provided such nominations are submitted at least ten (10) calendar days prior to the date of the meeting.
SECTION 3. Other Nominations: Floor

No one may be nominated unless they have consented to serve. To be nominated for an office, the candidate must be present or have filed with the Chairman, in writing, his/her consent to be nominated. Nominations shall be allowed from the floor.

SECTION 4. The Ballot

A. Organizational Meeting

There shall be at least four (4) separate ballots: the first for the Central Committee Chairman; the second for all other Central Committee officers; the third for delegates to the ORP; the fourth for Alternate Delegates to the ORP.

B. Regular or Special Meetings

There shall be at least two (2) separate ballots; the first for Delegates to the State Convention; and the second for Alternate Delegates to the State Convention.

SECTION 5. Distribution of ballots.

Ballots shall be placed in envelopes and distributed to qualified Committeepersons as they register with the Credentials Committee. Delegates leaving the meeting before the vote is called for will turn their ballots in to the Credentials Committee who will judge them to be invalid.

SECTION 6. Replacement of ballots marked in error or ruined.

The Chairman of the Credential Committee shall be responsible for the security of the extra supply of ballots. Should any Committeeperson mismark a ballot, it may be surrendered to the Chairman of the Credential Committee and will be replaced. All surrendered ballots shall be immediately marked “Void” and will be retained by the Chairman of the Credential Committee for review by the Election Judges.

SECTION 7. Ballot Boxes

Ballots shall be deposited by the voter into ballot boxes. Ballot shall be removed from the ballot boxes only by the appointed Election Judges.

SECTION 8. Counting of votes

The Chairman shall appoint three Election Judges who will determine the validity of ballots, supervise counting, tallying and announce the results. The Chairman will appoint an appropriate number of clerks to count the ballots. Each officer candidate may appoint one (1) observer to watch the counting of ballots related to the position they are seeking and report to the Election Judges any irregularities of procedure. During the counting and tallying of votes only Election Judges, appointed observers and clerks shall be present.

SECTION 9. Invalid ballots

Ballots which are not properly marked shall be deemed by the Election Judges to be invalid only for the position or positions where the error(s) occur. The Election Judges shall make no assumptions as to what the voter intended. All invalid ballots are to be kept separate, counted and included in the Election Judges’ report.

SECTION 10. Number Necessary to elect

The Chairman shall be elected by a majority vote. All other positions shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast. (Note: Majority=one more than half. Plurality=most votes cast.) If no candidate receives a majority vote for Chairman, there shall be a run-off election between the two
(2) candidates who received the most votes.

SECTION 11. The limit for nominating speeches

Each candidate for Chairman shall be allotted a total of five (5) minutes for speeches and each candidate for other Central Committee offices shall be allotted a total of two (2) minutes.
Candidates seeking the positions of Delegate to the ORP or State Convention shall be introduced but no time shall be allocated for speeches.

ARTICLE IX. EMPLOYEES

SECTION 1.

Staff may be hired if funds are available. Each staff person shall be responsible for duties assigned by the Chairman. A job description shall be given to each staff person at the time of employment.

SECTION 4.

In the event that an employee desires to run for paid public office, that employee must resign at the time he/she declares his/her candidacy. An employee may not run for an office or delegate position of the Central Committee.

ARTICLE X. FINANCES

SECTION 1. Budget

A. No expenses shall be allowed which are not included in the budget, whether as line item or from contingency as provided in subparagraph B.

B. The budget will include a minimum 5% of gross expenses proportional to actual income to be listed as “contingency” which shall be available for party business by the Chairman without consulting the Executive or Central Committees. This fund cannot be used to circumvent any action (vote) taken by either Executive or Central Committee.

C. The Executive Committee may amend the budget.

D. The budget shall be based upon a fiscal year ending December 31st.

E. Allocation of an expense item to a budget category shall be determined by the Treasurer and/or the Budget Committee.

SECTION 2. Expense Allowances

A. The Budget Committee shall provide a budgeted expense allowance proportional to actual income for the Central Committee Chairman and Vice Chairman and such other persons as may appear advisable.

B. Vouchers with itemized expenses, mileage 1 traveled and purpose of the expense shall be prepared by the individual receiving reimbursement. All expense vouchers for employees shall be approved by the Chairman prior to payment. Vouchers will be reviewed periodically by elected officers.

C. All financial forms shall be approved by the Audit and Budget Committees.

SECTION 3. Candidate Assistance

A. After due consideration, the Central Committee, the Executive Committee or a Candidate’s Assistance Committee may recruit and financially assist legally qualified candidates in the Primary election. In any contested race, the Multnomah County Republican Party shall treat legally qualified candidates equally. All Republican Candidates shall have equal access to the use of party records and equipment in a manner to be determined by the Executive Committee.

B. No Central Committee funds shall be used to pay for a candidate’s campaign deficit or any part thereof.

C. The Central Committee will financially assist Republican Candidates after the primary election as funds are available.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

SECTION 1.

The by-laws may be amended, altered, revised or repealed by a majority vote of those Committeepersons present and voting at any duly called meeting of the Central Committee provided that notice of the proposed amendment(s), alteration(s), revision(s) and/or repeal shall be given with the official notice of the meeting and provided a quorum exists.

SECTION 2.

Amendments to these by-laws may be proposed by the Central Committee action, recommendation by the Executive Committee, or by petition signed by not less than twenty percent (20%) of the then elected or appointed and certified Committeepersons. In any case, the Secretary shall include a copy of the proposed amendment with the official notice of the meeting.
