

Types of Membership

Organizational Membership:

$400 Annually

Organizational members are defined as agencies or boards who provide civilian oversight by legislative or executive mandate. These agencies or boards will receive one transferable (voting) membership. All agency or board affiliate members are eligible to serve on committees; however, election or appointment to the Board of Directors shall be limited to the designated voting member of the agency or board. Cities or other political subdivisions may obtain one organizational membership to cover all the entities within it which meet the requirements for regular membership.

Regular Membership:

$150 Annually

Regular members are defined as those persons who:

- Who are not sworn law enforcement officers;
- Who work for or constitute agencies which are established by legislative or executive authority to investigate and/or review issues and complaints against law enforcement; and/or
- Who have worked for and/or have constituted agencies, which are established by legislative or executive authority to investigate and/or review complaints against law enforcement.
- Who are mayors, county or municipal managers or who otherwise hold an executive position or are on a board, council, commission or committee with authority to direct, control, and/or oversee the activities and/or performance of the chief law enforcement officer of a political subdivision.

Associate Membership:

$100 Annually

Associate members are defined as any person interested in the oversight of law enforcement. Associate members shall be able to participate in all Association activities including serving on committees, but are ineligible to vote or serve as an officer or member of the Board of Directors.

Student Membership:

$50 Annually

Student members are defined as individuals currently enrolled either full or part-time in a college or university program in the area of criminology, criminal justice, law, sociology, political science, public administration, journalism, or a related field and who are interested in the oversight of law enforcement. Student members shall be able to participate in all Association activities including serving on committees, but are ineligible to vote or serve as an officer or member of the Board of Directors.

Benefits of Membership

Becoming a member of NACOLE allows you to join a growing community of police oversight professionals, individuals, law enforcement officials, academics, and others working to strengthen citizen review and to promote greater police accountability in the United States and abroad. It will also enable you to collaborate with us in continuing to produce world-class annual training conferences, facilitate networking opportunities, disseminate information regarding best practices, provide technical assistance to new and existing oversight agencies, and to act as advocates of oversight.
