

National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE)
2018 Scholarship Application

Starting in 2013, NACOLE, through its Annual Conference Scholarship Fund, began offering financial support to individuals to attend the NACOLE Annual Conference, expanding the reach of civilian oversight and promoting participation by individuals from a broad spectrum of social, economic, racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds. The Scholarship Fund supports and strengthens the work of civilian oversight practitioners and communities by providing access to a broad range of oversight information, best practices and professional networks.

Scholarships will cover the cost of conference registration and up to $500 in travel-related expenses.

Scholarship Descriptions, Eligibility and Applications

1. Founders' Community Scholarship Award

The Founders' Community Scholarship Award (FCSA) honors the significant contributions of the founders of NACOLE by supporting grassroots community members and/or law enforcement members whose attendance at the Annual Conference will benefit their communities and whose commitment to civilian oversight will be reinforced by their participation. The FCSA provides financial assistance to attend the Annual Conference to individuals from diverse social, economic, racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds.

2. Presidents' Scholarship Award

The Presidents' Scholarship Award (PSA) recognizes the dedication and commitment of each of NACOLE's past Presidents by supporting early-career professionals, volunteers and students whose attendance at the Annual Conference will strengthen their interest and commitment to the field. The PSA supports anyone with three years or fewer of experience working or volunteering in civilian oversight of law enforcement and students currently enrolled full- or part-time in a college or university program.

3. Membership Scholarship Award

The Membership Scholarship Award (MSA) supports and strengthens the work of NACOLE members by introducing them to a broad range of oversight information, best practices and professional networks. The MSA supports individuals in all NACOLE membership categories—Regular, Associate, Organizational and Student—by providing financial assistance to attend the Annual Conference. To be eligible for the MSA, you must be a member of NACOLE in good standing or employed by/affiliated with an oversight entity holding an organizational membership in good standing at the time of your application and as of the first day of the conference.

4. Local Community Scholarship Award

The Local Community Scholarship Award (LCSA) supports grassroots community members, advocacy organizations, volunteers and/or law enforcement members who may benefit from educational sessions and networking opportunities at the Annual NACOLE Conference or other NACOLE sponsored educational events. This category will be funded by donations specifically intended for this purpose on an annual basis.

Submit applications to: scholarship@NACOLE.org no later than May 1, 2018.
You will receive a confirmation of receipt. If you do not, please contact info@nacole.org or
