"The State of Census 2020 for Latinos" in Nation's Capital Next Week

April 17 event will address recent Census 2020 developments, including next steps following the U.S. Commerce Department's decision to add an untested question on citizenship

Washington, D.C. – The National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) Educational Fund today announced that it will host a briefing on "The State of Census 2020 for Latinos" in Washington D.C. on Tuesday, April 17, 2018.

During the briefing, NALEO Educational Fund Executive Director Arturo Vargas will address several recent developments that could potentially thwart a fair and accurate count of Latinos, including the U.S. Department of Commerce's decision to add a citizenship question to the 2020 Census.

The event will include a robust discussion on the various options NALEO Educational Fund and partners are currently pursuing to prevent the citizenship question from being added to the 2020 Census, including potential fixes at both the legislative and judicial level.
