

Spotlight Pocket Books for President, Vice President, Secretaries, Treasurers and Members

Member: $3.00

Non-Member: $5.00

The Spotlight series presents essential information on specific topics, supplementing easy-to-read information with practical advice not found in parliamentary authorities. These booklets are great resources for members who are newly elected or appointed to an office or committee. A must-have booklet for a current or incoming president that helps to define and explain their role as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer or member.

As the chosen leader of your organization, you should have a working knowledge of parliamentary procedure. You don't have to memorize everything, but you do need to know where to find the answers.

Answered questions include: What are the 18 roles of a president? How do you work with other officers? How do you plan a meeting? How do you compose an agenda? What is a motion? What are the various motions encountered in a meeting? How do you process a motion? How are votes taken? What are the Duties of the Other Officers? What are the duties of the members or an organization?
