

Reply 27289 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: On what date or dates since 27 October 2017 did the Minister first consider Deportation Liability for Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik?

Reply: My consideration of Mr Sroubek's deportation liability was on 19 September 2018.
27289 \(2018\)

Reply 27304 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: On what date and using what identity was Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik first granted a Visa?

Reply: I am advised that Mr Sroubek was first granted a visitor permit on 16 September 2003 using the identity Jan Antolik.

27304 \(2018\)

Reply 27302 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: On what category of Visa did Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik first enter New Zealand?

Reply: I am advised that Mr Sroubek first entered New Zealand on a visitor permit.

27302 \(2018\)

Reply 27300 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: On what date and under what name was Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik first granted a New Zealand Permanent Resident Visa?

Reply: I am advised Mr Sroubek was first granted a New Zealand residence permit on 6 June 2008 using the identity of Jan Antolik.

27300 \(2018\)

Reply 27299 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: Under what Residency category was Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik first granted a New Zealand Permanent Resident Visa?

Reply: I am advised Mr Sroubek was first granted a New Zealand residence permit under the Residence from Work Talent (Sports) policy.

27299 \(2018\)

Reply 27301 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: What other categories of temporary Visa, if any, did Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik obtain in New Zealand prior to gaining New Zealand permanent residency?

Reply: Other than residence, I am advised that Mr Sroubek has also held visitor permits, and work visas and permits under the Work to Residence Talent (Arts, Culture, and Sports) policy.

27301 \(2018\)

Reply 27290 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: What decision was made, and by whom, on any consideration of Deportation Liability for Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik between the granting of the first New Zealand Permanent Resident Visa and 27 October 2017?

Reply: I am advised that no such consideration took place during these timeframes.

27290 \(2018\)

Reply 27291 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: On what date or dates between the granting of the first New Zealand Permanent Resident Visa for Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik and 27 October 2017, was any Deportation Liability considered by the Minister, Associate Minister or a Delegated Decision Maker?

Reply: I am advised that no such consideration took place during these timeframes.

27291 \(2018\)

Reply 27292 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: Between the granting of the first New Zealand Permanent Resident Visa for Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik and 27 October 2017, was any Deportation Liability considered by the Minister, Associate Minister or a Delegated Decision Maker?

Reply: I am advised that between Mr Sroubek first holding residence and 27 October 2017, no deportation liability matter was considered by the Minister, Associate Minister or a Delegated Decision Maker.

27292 \(2018\)

Reply 27297 (2018) has been answered

Portfolio: Immigration (Minister - Iain Lees-Galloway)

Question: Was the exercise of Absolute Discretion necessary in the granting of the first New Zealand Permanent Resident Visa for Karel Sroubek/Jan Antolik?

Reply: I am advised there was no exercise of absolute discretion in the decision to grant the New Zealand residence permit because INZ was satisfied he met all relevant immigration instructions at the time.

27297 \(2018\)