NCC Membership Categories and Entitlements

The different levels of membership available and the membership process are outlined below. For more information on NCC membership categories and entitlements, please see the NCC Constitution, available at: nature.org.au/about/governance

Membership

NCC membership is open to any society, body or association (hereafter referred to as a group) that is interested in or deals with the conservation of nature and natural resources and subscribes to the Council's aims and objects and agrees to be bound by the NCC Constitution. For more information on NCC's aims and objects, visit the NCC website at: www.nature.org.au.

Membership must be renewed annually with membership falling due on the 1st of July each year. Any organisation that fails to renew their membership with 3 months of this date shall cease to be an NCC member. The NCC Executive Committee may revise membership fees from time to time.

All membership applications will be considered by the NCC Member and Representative Services Committee and applicants will be notified once a decision has been made on their application.

New Members only:

Full annual membership fees are payable for any new members approved by NCC's Member and Representative Services Committee before 31st December in the year a new member is approved. The fees payable will be halved when the approval is between 1st January and 30th June in the year a new member is approved.

Full Member	To be eligible to be a Full Member, groups must have conservation as their primary objective.
	A Full Member Body shall be entitled to send one delegate to Conferences if it has fewer than 100 members, two delegates if it has between 100 and 500 members, and three delegates if it has more than 500 members.
	Full Member fees (GST Inclusive) are based on the number of group members:
	Category	Number of members	NCC Membership Fees*
	Small	0-99	$90
	Medium	100-299	$200
	Large	300-499	$500
	Extra Large	500 & over	$650
Associate Member	Any group that does not wish to be a Full Member or that does not have conservation as its primary objective but supports NCC's aims and objects may apply to become an Associate Member.
	An Associate Member may be represented at the NCC Annual Conference by one delegate.
	Associate Member fees* are a flat rate of $165 (GST Inclusive) per annum.

**Fees indicated on this form are subject to change without notice. For up-to-date information, please contact NCC at 02 9516 1488.*

If you require further information, or would like a copy of the NCC Constitution posted or emailed to you, please contact the NCC Office on 02 9516 1488 or email: ncc@nature.org.au.
