

Parti Vert NB Green Party Constitution

Adopted November 15, 2008 and Amended by the AGM April 25, 2015

Article 1 The Body Constituted

The body constituted is the Parti Vert NB Green Party, also known as Le Parti Vert du Nouveau-Brunswick and the New Brunswick Green Party. Hereafter in this document it is referred to as The Party. The Party operates in both official languages.

Article 2 Scope of the Constitution

- 2.1 This constitution shall govern the activities of The Party, all persons operating on behalf of The Party, and the rights, responsibilities and duties of its recognized entities, committees and membership.
- 2.2 The constitution shall have precedence over any bylaws duly passed at an annual general meeting of members, and any bylaw that is inconsistent with the constitution shall be null and void to the extent of the inconsistency.

Article 3 Purpose

It is the purpose of The Party to advance The Party's platform, policies, and principles; and to contribute to the well-being of the people of New Brunswick, the sustainability and resilience of community life, the interests of future generations, and the restoration and protection of ecosystems on which these depend, by:

- 3.1 Fielding and electing candidates in provincial elections;
- 3.2 Once elected, serving as Members of the Legislative Assembly maintaining the highest standard of conduct and in accordance with the principles of The Party;
- 3.3 Building a constituency for Green policy in New Brunswick;
- 3.4 Establishing and maintaining such party structures and bodies as required to meet this purpose.

Article 4 Principles

The Party recognizes and promotes these principles, elaborated in a Charter of Principles, as the basis for policies and election platforms:

- 4.1 Living within our ecological means
- 4.2 Local self-reliance
- 4.3 Social justice and equity
- 4.4 Participatory democracy
- 4.5 Self-determination and citizenship
- 4.6 Non-violence
