

Friend—

Come network with your fellow supporters of sustainability and tell us what you're up to this Saturday at our election forum!

We'll also discuss two sustainability-related items that will be on the November ballot: Charter Amendment B, which would pave the way for a public bank in the City of Los Angeles, and Measure W, The Safe Clean Water Parcel Tax.

Saturday, October 13

1–4 pm

Holman United Methodist Church
in the Bowick Music Room
3320 W Adams Blvd
Los Angeles, CA 90018
parking on-site

Speakers on the issues will include:

- Lauren Ahkiam—Director, Water Project, LAANE (Los Angeles Alliance for a New Economy)
- Madeline Merritt—Public Bank Los Angeles
- Jay Handal—Co-Chair, Neighborhood Council Budget Advocates
- Pamela Manning—Community and Government Relations Representative, Los Angeles County Department of Public Works

RSVP and connect with carpoolers at www.ncsa.la/november\_2018\_election\_forum

the Neighborhood Council Sustainability Alliance (NCSA)
<http://www.ncsa.la/>