

VOTER GUIDE: CITY COUNCIL

District 42

Primary Day: June 22, 2021

About this Voter Guide

New Kings Democrats (“NKD”) developed a voter guide to help inform Brooklynites about the 2021 City Council primary races. It includes information about the 16 City Council races in Brooklyn and the candidates that will vie for the Democratic nod on June 22, 2021. This PDF includes just City Council District 42.

About New Kings Democrats

NKD is a progressive, grassroots political organization committed to bringing transparency, accountability, and inclusionary democracy to the Brooklyn Democratic Party. Founded by veterans of the Obama campaign, it is a borough-wide political organization that helps people seeking to become more engaged in local politics, and hopes to nurture a new generation of elected Brooklyn Democratic leaders.

As of the date of publication, NKD has endorsed candidates in City Council Districts 33, 34, 35, 37, and 39.

Please e-mail politics@newkingsdemocrats.com to learn more about our work.

About: City Council, Ranked Choice Voting, and How to Vote

What does the City Council do?

City Council is the lawmaking body for the city, made up of 51 elected officials. In much the same way that Congress acts as a check and balance to the Executive Branch, City Council acts as a check and balance to the Mayor's office. Brooklyn has 16 City Council members, representing districts 33 through 48. To see a map of the districts, visit council.nyc.gov/districts. Currently, all City Council members from Brooklyn are registered Democrats.

In addition to debating and passing laws, City Council is responsible for negotiating and passing the city budget, monitoring city agencies, and making land use decisions.

City Council can also pass resolutions on state and federal issues that are relevant to New Yorkers. Resolutions allow City Council to speak on behalf of NYC voters and can play an important role in the development of law and public policy.

How does Ranked Choice Voting work?

New York City will now use Ranked Choice Voting (RCV, also known as "Instant Runoff Voting") in the primary and special elections for Mayor, Public Advocate, Comptroller, Borough President, and City Council. Voters elected to use RCV in a 2019 ballot measure with 73.5% support.

New York City's RCV law allows voters to rank up to 5 candidates in order of preference. If you prefer, you can still vote for just one candidate. Ranking other candidates does not hurt your first-choice candidate.

To learn more, see the Board of Elections guide: vote.nyc/page/ranked-choice-voting.

If a candidate receives more than 50% of first-choice votes, they win the election. If no candidate receives more than 50% of first-choice votes, then the candidate with the fewest votes is eliminated. Votes for the eliminated candidate are redistributed to their voters' next ranked choice. A new tally is conducted to determine whether any candidate has won a majority of these votes. The process is repeated until a candidate wins an outright majority and is declared the winner.

Want to practice RCV on a ballot? Check out this link on rating your favorite bodega snacks from Rank The Vote NYC.

	1	2	3	4	5
Candidate A	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Candidate B	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Candidate C	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>
Candidate D	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Candidate E	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input checked="" type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>

	1	2	3	4	5
Candidate A	<input type="radio"/>
Candidate B	<input type="radio"/>
Candidate C	<input type="radio"/>
Candidate D	<input checked="" type="radio"/>
Candidate E	<input type="radio"/>

Why Ranked Choice Voting matters

RCV is more democratic, but ensuring voters are informed about the process is crucial. Ranking candidates lets you choose several candidates that share your values rather than rallying around a single front-runner. This way of voting can help build coalitions and means your vote always counts, whether or not your first-choice candidate wins. You can still have a say in who’s elected!

RCV also encourages candidates to be civil in campaigns since all candidates are vying for the top five slots on your ballot. Theoretically, candidates will try to appeal to more voters, rather than narrowly cater to their assumed base, meaning candidates who are more diverse and representative of community members win elections. In cities that use RCV, more women and people of color are elected.

Confirm your voter eligibility and where to vote

Confirm if you are registered to vote at www.nycvotersearch.com. If you are registered to vote, results will include your City Council district. You can confirm your polling location by clicking “Poll Site Information” in the top-right corner of the screen.

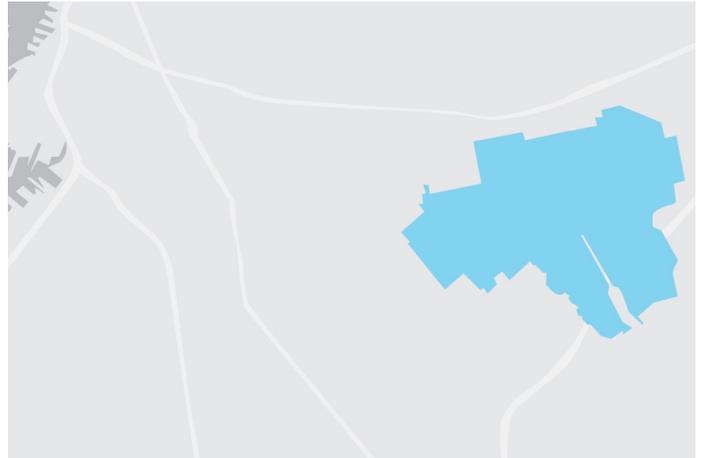

In Brooklyn, where most races will be won by Democrats, the Primary election is the real election for these local positions—so it is very important that you are registered as a Democrat and can vote this June. You can register by mail, online, or in person prior to May 28 and still be eligible to vote in the Primary Election as long as you are registered with a party. Visit vote.nyc/page/register-vote to register to vote.

Important dates for primary election voters

- May 28—last day to register to vote in the Primary Election
- June 12—early voting begins
- June 15—deadline to request an absentee ballot for Primary Election
- June 22—Primary Election and last day to postmark the primary election ballot, or deliver to Brooklyn Board of Elections (345 Adams Street) or your local polling site

COUNCIL DISTRICT 42

Council District 42 covers East New York, New Lots, Remsen Village, and Spring Creek. The candidates will be running for an open seat to replace Council Member Inez Barron, who is term-limited. According to CouncilStat, the most-common constituent issue in 2018 in the district was “seeking an affordable housing/apartment.” This district is one of the most heavily Black and Latinx in the city.

	Barron	Florentino	Lucas
Committed to free or accessible healthcare for all?	X	√	X
Has a plan for small-business rent relief during COVID?	X	√	√
Has a plan to reform the ULURP (land use) process?	X	√	X
Committed to not taking money from real estate developers?	X	√	X
Committed to not taking money from law enforcement agencies, foundations, or unions?	?	√	X

The information in the chart above is based on publicly available information. Where we have noted “yes” or “no” to a candidate’s commitments, “no” may also indicate that the candidate’s position is unknown or unavailable to the public.

COUNCIL DISTRICT 42, continued

Charles Barron

About the candidate: Longtime politician Charles Barron served as Council Member from 2001 to 2013. During his first 100 days in office, he sponsored nine pieces of legislation and co-sponsored 52 others, including the Living Wage Bill and the Predatory Lending Bill. He is a founding member of the East New York-based organization Operation P.O.W.E.R (People Organizing and Working for Empowerment and Respect). His wife, Inez, succeeded him from 2013 to 2021 in the Council. Following his term limit, he ran and won to serve as State Assembly Member for District 60. If he wins the Council seat in 2021, he and his wife will have collectively held it for 24 years.

What stands out about his platform: Charles has called for dismantling the NYPD while granting community control over police department personnel decisions. He called the statewide 2020 package of police reforms “a very pathetic response.”

Where you can learn more:

unknown

Wilfredo Florentino

About the candidate: Wilfredo is a founding member of NKD, a Senior Grants Manager at the NAACP, and the Chair of the Transportation Committee of Community Board 5. He spent five years as a project manager with the Empire State Development Corporation and two years as Press and Communications Liaison for the City Council. Wilfredo served in the military, where he rose to the rank of lieutenant in the “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell” era as a member of the LGBTQ+ community.

What stands out about his platform: Wilfredo calls for the immediate demilitarization of the NYPD to reinvest in community-based needs and holding law enforcement accountable through an Elected Civilian Review Board (“ECRB”) and revisions to contractual provisions that shield law enforcement from liability.

Where you can learn more:

wilfredoflorentino.com

@wilfredobklyn

COUNCIL DISTRICT 42, continued

Nikki Lucas

About the candidate: Nikki is an independent consultant and a longtime resident of the housing development Starrett City in East New York. She was previously District Leader in Assembly District 60 and has framed much of her political work as a challenge to the power the Barrons hold in this part of Brooklyn. Nikki also served on Community Board 5 and the East New York Neighborhood Advisory Board. She founded The People First Democratic Club and The People First Education Fund and hosts the Voices of East New York series on eastnewyork.com.

What stands out about her platform: Nikki's advocacy for seniors stands out as an element of both her healthcare and education plans.

Where you can learn more:

electnikkilucas.com

@electnikkilucas

Two other candidates have filed but have limited information about their campaign available online and may no longer be in the race: Marlon Powell and Gena Watson.

A FEW FINAL NOTES

For each City Council District candidate, we completed the “yes”/”no” chart based on publicly available information. Where we have noted “yes” or “no” to a candidate’s commitments, “no” may also indicate that the candidate’s position is unknown or unavailable to the public.

For the question “Committed to free or accessible healthcare for all?”, we noted a “yes” if a candidate has publicly stated support for accessible healthcare for all, universal healthcare, or the New York Health Act.

For the question “Has a plan for small-business rent relief during COVID?”, we noted a “yes” if a candidate has an explicit, detailed plan for how to get small businesses rent relief during or as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

For the question “Has a plan to reform the ULURP (land use) process?”, we noted a “yes” if a candidate addressed problems with the ULURP or land use process and outlined specific ways they would address this in the Council.

For the question “Committed to not taking money from real estate developers?” and “Committed to not taking money from law enforcement agencies, foundations, or unions?”, we noted a “yes” if a candidate has explicitly stated that they have not and will not take money from the parties noted.