The New Jersey Institute for Social Justice Presents:

The ‘Author Insider’ Series

Junius W. Williams, Esq.
Longtime Newark champion and author of “Unfinished Agenda, Urban Politics in the Era of Black Power”

Tuesday, July 7, 2015
12:30-2:00 p.m.
New Jersey Institute for Social Justice
60 Park Place, Suite 511
(Large Conference Room)
Newark

Bring your own lunch and join us!

Mr. Williams will sign copies of “Unfinished Agenda”
(available for $19 each)

Mr. Williams is a nationally recognized attorney, civil rights activist, community organizer, artist and scholar who has devoted his life to fighting racism and poverty and improving education and housing opportunities in Newark, New Jersey.

His compelling memoir provides an inside look at the Black Power Movement that emerged during the struggle for civil rights in the 1960s. It teaches grassroots politics and inspires organizing for real change.

Questions? Call (973) 624-9400, ext. 27 or tbrown@njisj.org.