

HEALTH

IN THE 21ST CENTURY

THE ECONOMY,
THE MENTAL HEALTH CRISIS
AND THE NHS

Thursday 17th November / 7pm

Rough Trade, 5 Broad Street, Nottingham NG1 3AJ

Today we take the NHS for granted, but will it always be there?

Budget cuts of £22 billion threaten its ability to provide even basic services, and we face a mental health crisis for which our current, underfunded NHS is not prepared.

Join People's Assembly and Keep Our NHS Public to discuss the future of our health service.

SPEAKERS

Harry Leslie Smith on life before and after the NHS

Dr Asha Mashru on the Junior Doctors dispute and the future of the NHS

Julie Gosling from local service-users network
Making Waves

Chaired by Lauren Mitchell

with Spoken Word artists and music from Soul on Ice DJs