

ARE YOU A PRIVATE RENTER?

Then these renters' rights events are for you

Whether you're new to renting, having problems with your landlord, or just feel you need a refreshment on your rights these free online events are the perfect fit for you.

At each event you'll get the latest renters' rights information, be able to ask questions and share your renting experience. All of our events are by Zoom webinar, so you can join anonymously from anywhere.

As a private renter, it can be hard to know exactly where you stand if you face difficulties.

Knowing about your rights and responsibilities gives you a better chance of enjoying an affordable, safe, and secure home.

Sign up today at GenerationRent.org/Events

Affording your rent

Monday 14 June / 6pm - 7pm

This webinar will cover benefits you may be entitled to, how you can save money and deal with rent increases.

Vent Your Rent

Tuesday 15 June / 6pm - 7pm

We want to hear your renting stories – good and bad – so your voice, concerns and ideas are part of this national debate.

Repairs: getting them done

Wednesday 16 June / 6pm - 7pm

This webinar will cover the responsibilities landlords have to keep homes safe and fit to live in.

Rent arrears and evictions

Thursday 17 June / 6pm - 7pm

This webinar will cover how best to manage rent debt, what benefits you may be entitled to and what to do if you think you're at risk of eviction or have been served an eviction notice.

Can't attend the events?

Get renters' rights factsheet and the link to watch the events online sent straight to your inbox.

Sign up at GenerationRent.org/rights

The factsheets will be available in different languages.

The Renters' Reform Coalition

Friday 18 June / 1pm - 2pm

The government has promised to legislate to end unfair evictions and make deposits fairer.

Hear about the changes the Renters' Reform Coalition are calling for and join the campaign.

What to do before you move home

Friday 18 June / 6pm - 7pm

This webinar will cover what you need to do before you take on a new tenancy and how to end your current tenancy, so you can avoid any nasty surprises in the future.

Your landlord's or letting agent's responsibilities towards you

Saturday 19 June / 11am-noon

This webinar will cover evictions, safety checks, licences and other responsibilities landlords and letting agents have towards you, where you can get help and how you can complain.

Renting in shared accommodation

Sunday 20 June / 11am-noon

This webinar will cover shared tenancy agreements in shared homes and the regulations governing Houses in Multiple Occupation.

EVIC
NOTICE

Generation Rent's mission is that every home in the private rented sector is safe, secure and affordable. Join our campaign at GenerationRent.org/Sign_Up community

For a better working world

