MEDIA RELEASE

Friday 26 July 2012

Coal, Our Reef and Our Future

An information and action focused community forum on the impact of the coal boom on our Great Barrier Reef and our society, and what community members can do about it, will be held in Townsville on Wednesday 1 August.

The Forum, 'Coal, Our Reef and Our Future' will be presented by North Queensland Conservation Council and feature speakers from James Cook University, Greenpeace and The Australia Institute.

The forum will run from 7.30pm to 9.30pm at the Old Courthouse, Cnr Sturt and Stokes Streets, in the city.

The forum is free and all are welcome.
