

Thank you for your generous consideration to including a gift in your Will towards the future of stem cell research in this country.

A Residuary Gift

A residuary gift, is a convenient way to include a charity in your Will by nominating a percentage of your estate that is left over, once you have provided for your family and loved ones.

"I bequeath to the National Stem Cell Foundation of Australia ABN 84 152 713 098 (Foundation), _____ % (percent) of my Estate to be applied for the purposes of medical (including stem cell) research in such a manner as its directors may determine. I declare that the receipt of a director or company secretary of the Foundation or a director, trustee or officer of the charitable entity or fund, will be sufficient discharge to my executors who will not be bound to see the application of this bequest."

A Gift of Specific Value

"I bequeath to the National Stem Cell Foundation of Australia ABN 84 152 713 098 (Foundation), _____ the _____ sum _____ of _____ dollars ($_____) to be applied for the purposes of supporting medical (including stem cell) research in such manner as its directors may determine. I declare that the receipt of a director or company secretary of the Foundation or a director, trustee or officer of the charitable entity or fund, will be sufficient discharge to my executors who will not be bound to see the application of this bequest."
