

Presenter Bios

Breann Pugnetti

Associate, CN4 Partners

Breann Pugnetti was born and raised in Colorado and ended up in the PNW to study politics at the University of Puget Sound. With a blend of legislative policy and campaign experience, Breann joined CN4 Partners in 2018 and has been helping build successful campaigns across the country. Her problem-solving, creativity and calm-in-the-storm attitude makes her an asset to every team she joins.

Prior to joining CN4, Breann worked with the Washington House Democratic Campaign Committee. Her hands-on approach to field and messaging helped secure progressive wins in crucial swing districts to maintain a Democratic majority in the Washington Legislature.

Later, she worked directly with State Representative Kristine Reeves. Breann oversaw communication strategy, policy development, and constituent services. She is most proud of her work developing childcare policy proposals to provide high-quality, accessible and affordable childcare for working families.

Breann has worked directly with many womxn candidates, including: Carolyn Long, candidate for WA-03, WA State Senate candidates Helen Price Johnson and Danielle Garbe Reser, WA State House Candidates Sarah Reyneveld, Carrie Hesch, Alicia Rule and Lori Feagan, and King County Councilmember Jeanne Kohl-Welles.