

The Future of Work Conference

Day One | 23rd March 2016

MC: Jacinda Ardern MP

12 noon		Registrations open
1 – 1:15pm	Mihi Whakatau	Led by Peeni Henare, MP for Tāmaki Makaurau
1:15 – 2pm	Role and aspirations of Labour in Government Context for the Future of Work Commission	Andrew Little MP, Leader of the Opposition Grant Robertson MP, Chair – Future of Work Commission
2 – 3pm	Keynote Address: Saving Capitalism: For the Many, Not the Few	Professor Robert B. Reich
3 – 3:30pm	Afternoon tea sponsored by Hawkins Group
3:30 – 4:30pm	Keynote Address: A Precariat Charter: Progressive Policies for Today's Dangerous Class	Professor Guy Standing
4:30 – 6pm	Panel: How the world of work is changing Technological disruption, new forms of work, flexibility at work and the idea of a just transition	Geoff Hunt – Hawkins Group Nina Sochon – High Performing Workplaces Expert Frances Valentine – Tech Futures Lab Matthew Tukaki – EntreHub Richard Wagstaff – NZ Council of Trade Unions
6 – 7:30pm	Networking Function

The Future of Work Conference

Day Two | 24th March 2016

8:30 – 9am	Keynote: Young People and the Future of Work	Jan Owen – CEO Foundation for Young Australians
9 – 9:45am	Panel: Education and Training for the Future of Work	Josh Williams – Industry Training Federation Kaye Avery – Career Development Association Ruth McDavitt – Summer of Tech Damon Salesa – University of Auckland
9:45 – 10:15am	Keynote: Future of Work – technology driven productivity improvement	Göran Roos – MD Innovation Performance Pty Ltd
10:15 – 10:45	Morning tea Sponsored by Hawkins Group
10:45 – 11:30am	Panel: Economic Development and Sustainability Regional development, Māori economic development and the sustainable future of work	Rachel Brown – Sustainable Business Network Shamubeel Eaqub – Economist and author Hinerangi Raumati – Director, Hinerangi Raumati Limited
11:30 – 12:30pm	Panel: New Models of Organising Work High Performance Engagement, the role of unions, what workers want and what makes a successful work place?	Phil Doak and unions - Air New Zealand Dave Oliver – Australian Council of Trade Unions Jane Bryson – Victoria University of Wellington Gail Pacheco – Auckland University of Technology
12:30 – 1:30pm	Panel: Decent Work for All The future for voluntary and unpaid work, the future of work for people with disabilities, pay equity and job security and security and flexibility for workers under 35	Scott Millar – Volunteering NZ Grant Cleland – Disability Employment Forum Erin Polaczuk – Public Service Association Heather Warren & Asher Goldman – Stand Up Youth Movement
1:30 – 2pm	Summing up	Jacinda Ardern, List MP based in Auckland Central