

The nationwide tour will kick off in February 2018. Each tour location will include a full day of campaign activist training. Top political consultants will be on site to provide meaningful information on the latest techniques and proven plans for successful initiative, grassroots and political campaign involvement. At each stop OAI will sponsor a rally with guest speakers discussing and promoting the liberty agenda.

Find the city closest to you....and plan to attend. You won't want to miss the OAI Liberty Tour 2018. Exact dates for each location will be announced this Fall.
