

AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY VIDEO INTERN

PURPOSE & RESPONSIBILITIES

The Stakeout is one of Oaktree's largest campaigns we run. It will see hundreds of people across the country come together and take a stand on an issue they care about. This issue is the 11 billion dollars cut from our aid budget since 2013. This is unacceptable and the upcoming election is our biggest opportunity in the next three years to do something about it.

As Video Intern, you'll play an important role in creating content as a part of our upcoming campaign, the Stakeout. This will include creating dynamic and meaningful video content, creating strategy with our Communications team and collecting video material during the actual Stakeout.

As the Video Intern, you will help create media for one of our biggest campaigns of the year. This will involve:

- Working with the Communications Team to develop strategy around video creation
- Creating dynamic and meaningful video content
- Collecting video and photo content during the Stakeout (June 24th-26th)
- Editing video and photo content

TIME COMMITMENT 8-15 hours per week

REPORTS TO Sinead McCullough | ACT Mobilisation Coordinator

FOR QUESTIONS s.mccullough@oaktree.org

APPLICATIONS CLOSE June 5th 2016

We value will over skill, determination over degrees, and passion over years of experience.

WHO WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Is proficient in FinalCut Pro, Adobe Premiere Pro/After Effects or other video software
- Has excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Has experience in copywriting and copyediting
- Has strong organisational skills
- Preferably has access to film equipment
- Ideally interested in the international development sector, and willing to learn

WHAT YOU GET OUT OF IT

- Develop skills in video communications, research and project management that will career you forward in your career
- Change the way thousands of Australians think about the issue of extreme poverty and influence the narrative of aid and development within Australia
- Critically engage with international development issues
- Gain experience with Oaktree's direct impact work
- Work with hundreds of young, passionate people and make new friends

APPLY AT

oaktreeorg.typeform.com/to/blUUaK