

LIVE BELOW THE LINE VIDEOGRAPHER

Communications is at the heart of what we do at Oaktree. It is how we connect with the 10,000 participants and 50,000 donors who support Live Below the Line every year. It is how we support participants every step of the way, encouraging them to raise their first dollar, inspiring them with world-class content from Oaktree's international partners, and lending them a hand when they can't work out how the website works.

As the Videographer on the Live Below the Line team, you will be utilising your creativity to produce video material for external communications, to inform and educate Oaktree's supporters about the issue of poverty, excite the public about Live Below the Line and strengthen our movement to end poverty.

As Videographer, a typical day might look like:

- Communicating Oaktree's impact through visual mediums.
- Creating videos that change people's perceptions about poverty.
- Developing new and exciting ways to inform the public about Live Below the Line.
