The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, She has anointed me to...

...This scripture is fulfilled in your hearing, today! Luke 4:16-21
The On Earth Peace Board of Directors approved the creation of an Anti-Racism Transformation Team (ARTT) during their fall 2014 meeting. This is the next step in our decade-long effort to understand how our rise in hate and violence--both internal to the organization and external to our program offerings--is linked to the perpetuation of institutional racism and its ability to maintain unearned power and privilege through formal policies and practices, teachings and decision-making--thereby excluding or limiting full participation in the organization by people of color. Through the creation of this team, we intend to effectively and credibly help constituent peacebuilding practitioners and end violence and address injustices and working a path toward full ownership and participation by people of all racial identities. On Earth Peace longs to become an anti-racist and fully multiracial organization. The ARTT begins its work in 2015.

#Violence Michael Brown’s death in Ferguson in August 2014 triggered widespread social conversation and activism related to the deaths of black people at the hands of white police, security officers, and vigilantes. In late August, our Nonviolent Social Change Social Media Research project helped us understand if there was a role for On Earth Peace to play in these efforts as a ministry largely serving the Church of the Brethren, and with historically majority white congregations/districts in this way.

#Solidarity To the commitment of conscientious and committed leaders and teachers in their communities to build peace.

#Reconnect On Earth Peace’s Ministry of Reconciliation teaches and practices healthy, faithful and healthy ways to address and work through--even transform--conflict, and having the Ministry of Reconciliation of On Earth Peace serve an active role in National Youth Conference was a natural fit for all of us.
