

THIS IS YOUR MPP

ROD PHILLIPS
Progressive Conservative

In the next few days, the Ontario government will vote on Bill 47, a bill to take away your workplace rights and reduce the penalties for employers who break the law. Unless we stop it, Bill 47 will cancel:

- $15 minimum wage
- Two paid sick days
- Equal pay for part-time & temp workers doing the same job as full-time or directly-hired co-workers
- Fairer scheduling laws
- Laws that make it easier to join and keep a union

TELL YOUR MPP TO VOTE AGAINST BILL 47.

No matter what they say, Ontario's economy is thriving with a higher minimum wage. In 2018 alone Ontario has gained 103,000 new jobs. Higher wages mean people have more money to spend at local businesses.

TELL ROD PHILLIPS TO KEEP DECENT WORK LAWS.

Your MPP, Rod Phillips, is listening to big business and the Ontario chamber of commerce, and is planning to vote against workers' rights, unless we stop him.

Send him an email by going to myrights.ca/email.

Phone him at 905-427-2060.

Tell your MPP to DO THE RIGHT THING and vote AGAINST Bill 47.

WHAT TO TELL YOUR MPP:

- Tell him that you are an Ontario voter.
- Tell him you support the $15 minimum wage and ALL new decent work laws.
- Tell him your reasons for wanting to keep all these laws (two paid sick days, equal pay for equal work, ten personal emergency leave days, two of which are paid, fairer scheduling, making it easier to join and keep a union).

For more information on how Bill 47 will affect you and your family, text "MYRIGHTS" to 647-496-5602 or go to 15andfairness.org.

If you have questions, call 416-441-2731.
